GEORGIA TECH/ISP SPORTS RADIO NETWORK

WQXI-AM "SportsTalk 790 the Zone" is the Atlanta flagship for Georgia Tech football. FM coverage is available in the Atlanta area on WREK 91.1 FM (night games only) and WTSH 107.1 FM.

Wes Durham enters his 14th year as the play-by-play "Voice of the Yellow Jackets." A five-time Georgia Sportscaster of the Year, including 2007, and winner of the "Furman Bisher Award" from the Atlanta Sports Council in 2006, he also serves as Tech's Director of Broadcasting. Durham also is in his fifth year as the play-by-play voice of the NFL's Atlanta Falcons.

Durham is joined in the booth by former Rambling Wreck and NFL quarterback Rick Strom, who returns for his fourth season. Strom spent the previous three seasons as the sideline reporter.

WES DURHAM Voice of the Yellow Jackets

New to the team is 790's Jeff Woolverton, who will handle the sideline duties in 2008.

Pregame coverage begins two hours before kickoff with "Yellow Jacket Countdown," featuring game previews, live guests and former players.

For a complete list of radio affiliates, visit Tech's official athletics website, RamblinWreck.com or contact ISP Sports at 404.365.9880.

Tech games are also available on XM Satellite Radio, Channels 191-

PAUL JOHNSON RADIO SHOW

JUST SAY: "GEORGIA TECH"

Just five institutions that play NCAA Division I-A football do not use the word "University" in their official titles. They are: Air Force, Army, Navy, Boston College and Georgia Tech.

The Georgia Institute of Technology is the official title, but Georgia Tech will work fine, or just Tech. We would appreciate it if you would use our name in those ways. Thanks.

Originally built in 1913 by members of the student body, Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd Stadium at Historic Grant Field is the oldest on-campus stadium in NCAA Division I-A and easily one of the nation's most unique settings for college football.

In the 94 autumns since then, legends from Clint Castleberry to George Morris to Joe Hamilton have played on Grant Field, and Paul Johnson joins coaching giants such as John Heisman and Bobby Dodd in patrolling the Grant Field sideline.

Four national title teams and 15 conference champions have showcased their skills on the Flats, and Grant Field was the site of one of the most famous games ever played, Tech's 222-0 win over Cumberland in 1916.

Today's Bobby Dodd Stadium seats 55,000 fans in a modern, comfortable facility that embraces the tradition that has made Tech's venerable stadium a cornerstone of college football for nearly a century.

Bobby Dodd Stadium

Georgia Tech's storied football facility has been a cornerstone of college football for more than 90 years. Cozily nestled amid Atlanta's skyscrapers, Bobby Dodd Stadium at Historic Grant Field is easily one of the nation's most unique settings for college football.

Originally built in 1913 by members of the Georgia Tech student body, Bobby Dodd Stadium at Historic Grant Field is the oldest on-campus stadium in NCAA Division I-A, but the venerable stadium has added another chapter to its storied history with a new look and an expanded capacity.

Completed in 2003, a two-year expansion and renovation raised capacity to 55,000 seats and added numerous amenities. The $75 million endeavor included the expansion and renovation of Bobby Dodd Stadium/Grant Field and the rebuilt Russ Chandler Stadium, Tech's 4,157-seat baseball facility.

The focal point of the project is the new North end zone structure, which seats 15,678 in two levels and also includes 10 luxury suites and the Howard Ector Letterwinners Lounge. The complex also features the 7,000-square foot Kim King Football Locker Room, a 3,300-square foot players' lounge, the Jones Media Room, and coaches' offices that overlook Grant Field.

In addition to the rebuilt seating area, the new lower East structure features 20 executive suites as well as 2,040 chair-backed club seats between the 25-yard lines and a private air-conditioned lounge for those patrons

At the South end of Bobby Dodd Stadium, 2,970 seats were added in front of the Wardlaw Building, providing seating in the South end zone for the first time since 1985. The South end zone seating and the lower levels of the East and North stands form a three-sided bowl.

Construction began following the 2001 season, with the first phase completed for the 2002 season, when capacity was 43,719. The first phase saw the completion of the lower bowl seating in the South, East and North areas of the stadium.

A new natural grass playing surface and drainage system was installed, and the field was shifted approximately 30 feet to the north and 15 feet to the west.

Program management was provided by Carter/Turner, a joint venture of Carter & Associates and Turner Construction, while HOK Sport was the project's architect.

Georgia Tech's football facility was known as Grant Field until April of 1988, when the Georgia State Board of Regents voted to add the name Bobby Dodd Stadium in honor of the legendary coach who guided the Rambling Wreck to its most illustrious football era. A member of the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, Dodd compiled a 165-64-8 record from 1945-66, and tutored 21 All-Americans as he led Tech to 13 bowl trips during his 22-year stay as head coach. Dodd served as Tech's director of athletics from 1951-76 and then worked as a consultant for the alumni association until his death in 1988 for a 57-year association with the Institute.

The name change was the first for the facility since it was named Hugh Inman Grant Field in 1914 after a gift from John W. Grant, a member of the Tech Board of Trustees and a well-known Atlanta merchant. The Grant family did not give the land on which Grant Field is built. However, they did give the initial $15,000 used in 1913 to build the first permanent concrete stands on the west side of the field. In gratitude for the gift, the Board of Trustees named the field Hugh Inman Grant Field in memory of Grant's deceased son.

The students who built Grant Field more than 90 years ago wouldn't recognize the home of Georgia Tech football if they saw it now. Not only has the skyline around the stadium changed dramatically, but the facility has steadily grown and improved during its rich history.

Tech actually began playing football on this site in 1905, but in 1913, the original concrete West Stands were largely built by Tech students and seated 5,600. The concrete East Stands were completed in time for the 1924 season. A year later, the South Stands were finished, bringing the seating capacity to approximately 30,000.

In 1947, the West Stands were rebuilt, which raised the capacity to 40,000, and a new press box was added. The North Stands were erected in 1958 to bring the seating to 44,105.

A second deck was added to the East side in 1962, increasing capacity to 53,300. The facility was expanded again in 1967, when the West Stands were double-decked to bring capacity to 58,121. That project also included new press and photo levels, including an elevator.

Following the 1985 season, the historic South Stands, which formed the familiar U-shape on North Avenue, were razed. In their place is the William C. Wardlaw Center, a multi-purpose facility for Georgia Tech's athletic and academic departments that was opened in 1988. Seating capacity was reduced to 46,000.

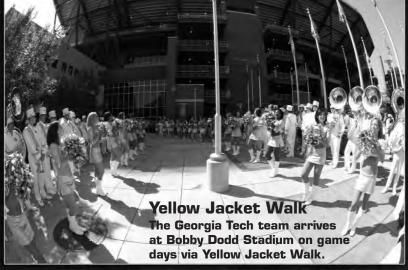

A major renovation was completed prior to the 1992 season with the construction of the Bill Moore Student Success Center behind the West Stands, as well as the addition of 32 executive suites, the renovation of the President's Box and press level, and the addition of the Roy Richards Festival concourse area under the West Stands.

Natural grass returned to Grant Field in 1995 after 24 seasons with artificial turf. The field was originally surfaced with Astroturf in 1971 and resurfaced in 1979, and then new artificial All-Pro Turf was installed in 1988.

Bobby Dodd Stadium/Grant Field is located at the heart of the Georgia Tech campus on Techwood Drive, bordered by North Avenue on the south and Bobby Dodd Way on the north.

Tech has hosted numerous crowds which have exceeded capacity, the largest of which was the 60,316 spectators for the Georgia game in 1973.

TOTAL PERSON PROGRAM Preparing for life beyond the gridiron

Tech degree in just three years. The senior defensive tackle is now pursuing his graduate degree.

At Georgia Tech, the day the cheering stops will still be a time of celebration. An athlete's playing days will end, but the Total Person Program ensures that Yellow Jacket student-athletes will be prepared for the career and personal challenges ahead.

Through this multifaceted program, the brainchild of retired Director of Athletics Dr. Homer Rice, Rambling Wreck student-athletes have the opportunity to learn the elements of success beyond the classroom or playing field. They gain skills that remain with them for a lifetime, preparing for the career and personal challenges ahead.

During his 17-year tenure from 1980-97, Rice rebuilt Georgia Tech's athletic fortunes with an emphasis not just in fund-raising and facilities but in equally important areas such as academic support and life skills.

Since Rice started the Total Person Program in 1980, it has developed into the most comprehensive student-athlete support system in the country. Rice's model has been adopted nationwide as the foundation for the NCAA's Life Skills Program. Because of the success of the Total Person Program, Georgia Tech was one of three schools chosen to consult with the NCAA on this project.

Addressing virtually every area of a well-rounded educational experience, the Total Person Program, under the direction of Leah Thomas, focuses on the following components:

- ► Academic Support and Degree Completion
- Life Skills
- Career Planning and Placement
- Counseling and Wellness
- ▶ Leadership
- ▶ Honors
- Community Outreach

Nestled in the heart of Midtown Atlanta

The Georgia Institute of Technology is one of the nation's top research universities, distinguished by its commitment to improving the human condition through advanced science and technology.

Georgia Tech's campus occupies 400 acres in the heart of the city of Atlanta, where more than 18,000 undergraduate and graduate students receive a focused, technologically based education.

Accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), the Institute offers many nationally recognized, top-ranked programs. Undergraduate and graduate degrees are offered in the Colleges of Architecture, Engineering, Sciences, Computing, Management, and the Ivan Allen College of Liberal Arts. Georgia Tech is consistently ranked in U.S. News & World Report's top ten public universities in the United States.

Georgia Tech, the home of the Yellow Jackets, is the No. 7 public university in the nation, according to the 2007 rankings by U.S. News & World Report. Georgia Tech is an innovative intellectual environment with more than 900 full-time instructional faculty and more than 18,000 undergraduate and graduate students.

The university is a national and international leader in scientific and technological research and education. Over the past decade, overall research expenditures increased by 84 percent to $355.3 million in 2006, while federal research expenditures increased 129 percent. Georgia Tech now ranks among the top five in research expenditures among universities without a medical school. In addition, Georgia Tech has an estimated $3.9 billion annual impact within the state of Georgia, according to a 2006 Strategic Economic Development.

Rankings

Year after year, Georgia Tech is consistently the only technological university ranked in U.S. News & World Report's listing of America's top ten public universities. In addition, Georgia Tech's College of Engineering is consistently ranked in the nation's top five by U.S. News. In terms of producing African American engineering graduates, Diverse: Issues in Higher Education ranks Tech No. 1 at the bachelor's level, No. 2 at the master's level, and No. 1 at the doctoral level. These impressive national rankings reflect the academic prestige long associated with the Georgia Tech curriculum.

Rambling Wreck, Gold and White, Yellow Jacket mascot

The Rambling Wreck

September 30, 1961 versus Rice. For the first time, the official Rambling Wreck car led the Georgia Tech football team onto Grant Field. It's happened at every home game since.

The event did not establish a new tradition at Georgia Tech, but it cemented one. The vehicle, a restored 1930 Model A Ford Sport Coupe, was Tech's first official Rambling Wreck car.

Since that time, the Rambling Wreck car has joined a much older tradition-the Yellow Jacket-as an official school mascot.

The term Rambling Wreck was first applied to a 1914 Ford owned by Floyd Field, Dean of Men. In the first published reference to the car as the "Rambling Wreck" in 1927, the Technique student newspaper spoke out against Field when he considered trading the car, but he did it anyway.

Tech officials decided in the late 1950s that the school needed an official car that would be known forever as the Rambling Wreck. Dean of Students James Dull began a search for a pre-1940 vintage model, and finally found one-parked in front of his apartment building. The owner, Capt. Ted J. Johnson, a Delta Air Lines pilot, had just finished restoring the 1930 Ford Cabriolet Sport Coupe, which he intended to give to his son as a gift.

Johnson decided to let Tech have the car for $1,000 in May, 1961. He later returned the purchase price in the form of a contribution to the Alexander-Tharpe Fund, fulfilling a desire to go on record as having given the Rambling Wreck to Georgia Tech.

The Yellow Jacket

Conflicting accounts exist as to the origins and beginnings of the Yellow Jacket, but the nickname did not grow out of the familiar six-legged insect; rather, the insect mascot, known as "Buzz," grew out of the nickname. The first known reference to Tech students as "Yellowjackets" appeared in the Atlanta Constitution in 1905 and came into common usage at that time. The name, spelled as one word, was first used to describe supporters who attended Tech athletic events, dressed in yellow coats and jackets. The actual mascot was conceived at a later, undetermined date.

Other nicknames which have applied to Tech teams include the Engineers; the Tecks, the first known nickname which was phased out around 1910; the Blacksmiths, common between 1902 and 1904; and the Golden Tornado, thought to be created by sportswriters when John Heisman led Tech to its first national title in 1917.

White & Gold

In the fall of 1891, before Georgia Tech organized a football team of its own, a game was scheduled between Auburn and Georgia. A rivalry was already established in baseball between Tech and Georgia, so Tech students were invited to the game to cheer, of course, for Auburn.

The students appointed a committee to recommend colors to be worn and cheers to be used at the game. The committee suggested white and gold, and about 200 students attended the game wearing those colors.

In 1893, when Georgia Tech's football team played Georgia for the first time, a group of young women from the Lucy Cobb Institute for Girls attended the game to cheer for Tech, dressed in white and gold.

Oh well it's up with the White and Gold
Down with the Red and Black
Georgia Tech is out for the victory
We'll drop the battle axe on Georgia's head
When we meet her, our team is sure to beat her
Down on the old farm there will be no sound
Till our bow-wows rip through the air
When the battle is over, Georgia's team will be found
With the Yellow Jackets swarming around.

The Fight Song

The Georgia Tech fight song grew out of an old folk ballad, "The Sons of the Gamboliers."

Howard D. Cutter, a member of Tech's first graduating class (Mechanical Engineering, 1892), wrote in the November-December 1942 issue of the Georgia Tech Alumnus that the "Ramblin' Wreck" had its origins during the first two years after Tech opened in 1888, inspired when the entire student body traveled to Athens to see Tech's baseball team defeat Georgia.

By the early 1900s, "Ramblin' Wreck" was an established tradition. The earliest existing published version of the song appeared in the Blueprint, the Institute's yearbook, in 1908.

In 1910, Michael A. Greenblatt, Tech's first bandmaster, discovered the band playing "Ramblin' Wreck" to the tune of "Sons of the Gamboliers," and made his first arrangement of the song in the form of a handwritten manuscript.

When Frank Roman succeeded Greenblatt as bandmaster in 1911, he wrote a new adaptation of "Ramblin' Wreck," accompanied by many trumpet flourishes, that became nationally known. His is the version that continues to be popular today.

The fame of the song spread to such proportions that in 1959 it was sung by Richard Nixon and Nikita Khrushchev at their historic face-to-face meeting in Moscow. In 1984, the law firm of Newton, Hopkins & Ormsby investigated the copyright of "Ramblin' Wreck" and found that a number of people have had various versions of the song copyrighted. The original version of the song is in the public domain and can be played without payment of royalties.

I'm a Ramblin' Wreck from Georgia Tech and a hell of an engineer, A helluva, helluva, helluva, helluva, hell of an engineer, Like all the jolly good fellows, I drink my whiskey clear, I'm a Ramblin' Wreck from Georgia Tech and a hell of an engineer.

Oh, if I had a daughter, sir, I'd dress her in White and Gold, And put her on the campus, to cheer the brave and bold. But if I had a son, sir, I'll tell you what he'd do. He would yell, "To Hell with Georgia," like his daddy used to do.

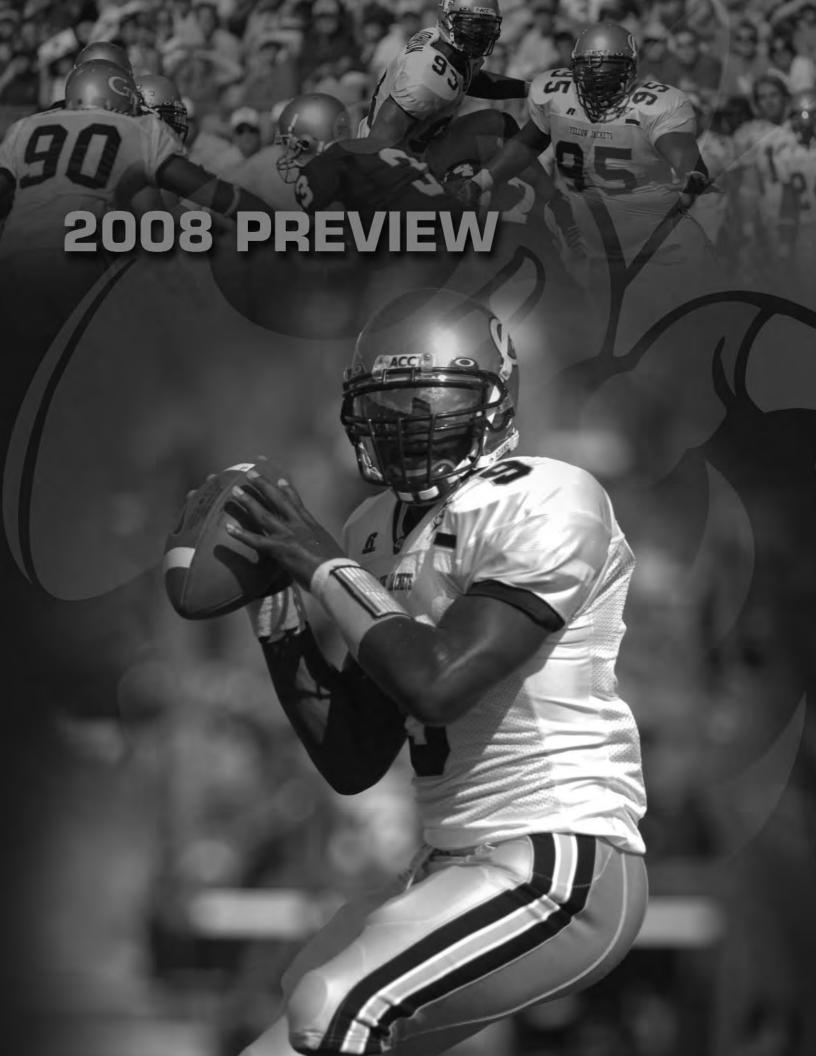

Oh, I wish I had a barrel of rum and sugar three thousand pounds, A college bell to put it in and a clapper to stir it around. I'd drink to all good fellows who come from far and near. I'm a ramblin', gamblin', hell of an engineer.

'08 Preview: Everything New On The Flats

PAUL JOHNSON'S FIRST YELLOW JACKET TEAM WILL BE YOUNG, BUT EXCITING

Georgia Tech will still play its home football games at Historic Grant Field/Bobby Dodd Stadium. Almost everything else concerning Yellow Jacket football will have a new look in 2008.

Paul Johnson, a proven winner at Georgia Southern and more recently at Navy, enters his first season as Georgia Tech's head coach. Johnson, who replaced Chan Gailey in December, has brought his option-based spread offense and six new assistant coaches to The Flats.

With all the changes, excitement around the program has been revived. Johnson won national championships at Georgia Southern and took Navy to an unprecedented level. How long will it take current Yellow Jacket players to master his unique schemes? And how long will it be before Tech competes for an ACC Championship?

"I believe that to win football games you must be able to run the football and stop the run," said Johnson, whose Navy teams led the nation in rushing in 2005, 2006 and 2007. "I think that's been true for a long period of time. That's the way we are going to approach it.

"We'll go in trying to make sure we can run the ball on offense. That doesn't mean we aren't going to throw the ball. We hope to have a good passing attack as well. On the flip-side, we have to be able to stop the run. No matter how many guys you have to put up there, that has to be priority No. 1."

There are several misconceptions about Johnson's spread offense. While there is a definite emphasis on the run, the offense is built around misdirection and has the potential to churn out vards – and points – in a hurry.

Johnson's 2007 Navy team closed the season by scoring 30 or more points in six consecutive games. Only Florida, with seven, owned a longer streak. Navy had 25 scoring drives of two minutes or less in 2007, which ranked 10th nationally. Of the Midshipmen's 25 scoring drives of two minutes or less, 22 resulted in touchdowns.

"Our system isn't much different from what everybody else is running," Johnson said. "Pretty much everybody is running what we're running, but they're doing it out of the shotgun. We're just doing it from under center.

"I think the system is varied enough to where we can tweak it to fit the players we have here. We've added a lot of different things at the schools where we've been in the past. We threw it a lot more at Hawai'i [when Johnson was the offensive coordinator there]. We ran it more at Navy. I envision it being somewhere in between here."

Johnson and his mostly-new staff – three coaches remain from the previous staff – will have their work cut out for them in 2008. Gone from last year's 7-6 team (4-4 in the ACC) are 14 starters, including the ACC's two-time leading rusher Tashard Choice. The Yellow Jackets must also fill holes on the offensive line, replace two-thirds of the starting linebacker corps and three-fourths of the starting secondary.

Also gone is perhaps the best kicker-punter duo in Georgia Tech history. Kicker Travis Bell was the second-leading scorer in school history and punter Durant Brooks was the 2007 Ray Guy Award winner.

In addition, Tech is still feeling effects of an NCAA probation that ended in December. When fall practice begins in late July, only 73 Yellow Jackets may be on scholarship. The numbers will eventually climb closer to the NCAA limit of 85, but for now Tech's numbers are thin.

The Yellow Jacket cupboard, however, is far from bare. There are 48 returning letterwinners, including eight starters, two of which – senior offensive tackle Andrew Gardner and senior defensive tackle Vance Walker – were first team All-ACC selections in 2007.

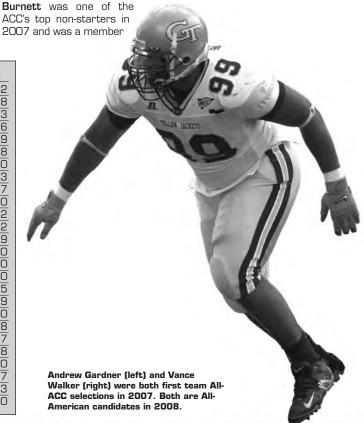

Walker anchors the defensive line, which could potentially be one of the strongest groups in the ACC, if not all of college football. Walker and fellow senior defensive tackle Darryl Richard form a talented run-stopping, passrushing duo. Last year Walker and Richard combined for 25.5 tackles-forloss, 13 sacks and four forced fumbles. Senior defensive end Michael Johnson is a 6-7, 260-pound pass-rush specialist who has potential to be a high NFL draft pick.

Tech returns just one starting linebacker – sophomore Shane Bowen – and just one starter from the secondary – senior cornerback Jahi Word-Daniels – but the Jackets aren't as thin in those areas as it appears on paper.

Sophomore Anthony Barnes started three games at outside linebacker and was a regular part of the rotation. Sophomore defensive back Morgan of the Sporting News' ACC All-Freshmen Team.

On the offensive line, the Yellow Jackets must replace guards Matt Rhodes and Nate McManus and center Kevin Turninello. Those three players combined for 119 career starts and Turninello was Tech's starter at center for three seasons.

Gardner, a first team All-ACC selection in 2007, is the leader of the group with 39 consecutive starting assignments entering 2008. He'll have help from junior Cord Howard, a returning starter at tackle, and senior tackle A.J. Smith, who has six career starts. Junior Dan Voss started the final seven games of 2007 at guard and is likely to move over to the center position this fall.

The big question on offense is which quarterback will direct Tech's spread option-based attack. Sophomore Josh Nesbitt, who played in 11 games as a true freshman, has the build and the athleticism if he can fully grasp the scheme. Senior Calvin Booker, a former Auburn transfer, played well in the final game of the 2007 regular season and also in the bowl game. Redshirt freshman walk-on Bryce Dykes turned heads in spring practice with his toughness and ability to direct the offense.

Tech loses its starting tailback (Choice) and underrated starting fullback (Mike Cox), but a number of candidates could help carry the load this fall.

The leading returning rusher is sophomore Jonathan Dwyer, who rushed for 436 yards and nine touchdowns last season as a rookie. Dwyer enters spring drills as the top candidate to start at the B-back (fullback) position.

The new-look offense includes two slot or A-backs and two wide receivers. The A-back is a hybrid position, used as a rusher as well as a receiver.

Junior Greg Smith, Tech's leading returning receiver after reeling in 37 passes for 588 yards last season, moved to the A-back position in the spring. Smith, who should be fully recovered from a spring shoulder injury, should get significantly more touches at his new position.

Competing for the other A-back position will be speedy redshirt freshman Roddy Jones and senior Andrew Smith, who also moves from wide receiver. Sophomore Austin Barrick, a 254-pounder, gives the Yellow Jackets some power at the position.

A pair of talented sophomores anchor the wide receiver position. Demaryius "Bay-Bay" Thomas hauled in 35 receptions for 558 yards in 2007 as a redshirt freshman. Correy Earls, who overcame a neck injury last season. has remarkable speed.

The biggest shoes to fill may be at kicker and punter where Bell and Brooks formed one of college football's best duos in 2007. Bell scored a team-high 106 points last season and converted 23-of-28 field goal attempts. Brooks was outstanding, punting for an average of 45.1 yards, earning first team All-America honors and he left Tech with the highest career punting average in the history of the ACC.

True sophomore walk-on Scott Blair was a hidden gem on Tech's special teams last year. Handling the Yellow Jackets' kickoff duties, Blair helped Tech rank third nationally in kickoff return yardage defense. Blair is a candidate to start at both kicker and punter. Junior Mohamed Yahiaoui handled the kickoffs in 2006 and sat out last season as a redshirt.

Senior Bret White returns as the dependable long-snapper.

Paul Johnson's Coaching Staff

Paul Johnson's first staff at Georgia Tech is an interesting mix. He retained three defensive coaches from the previous Yellow Jacket staff, brought three assistant coaches with him from Navy, and recruited three other veteran coaches he has longstanding ties with. The result is a cohesive staff that is concerned with overall team performance and not just the performance of their specific unit.

Johnson retained Giff Smith (defensive line), Brian Jean-Mary (linebackers) and Charles Kelly (cornerbacks). Kelly moves to defense after serving last season as special teams coach.

Brian Bohannon (B-backs and quarterbacks), Jeff Monken (slot backs and special teams) and Todd Spencer (co-offensive line) come to Georgia Tech after previously working with Johnson at Navy.

Johnson hired Dave Wommack (defensive coordinator), who served last season as linebackers coach at Southern Mississippi. Al "Buzz" Preston (wide receivers) coached at New Mexico last year and began his association with Johnson two decades earlier at Hawai'i. Johnson also hired Mike Sewak (co-offensive line), a veteran coach who actually replaced Johnson as Georgia Southern's head coach in 2002.

Sewak and Spencer will work together to coach the offensive line. Combined, Sewak and Spencer have more than 50 years of coaching experi-

The Schedule

The ACC schedule-makers did no favors to Tech. After opening the season on a Thursday night with Jacksonville State, the Yellow Jackets play on consecutive September Saturdays, on the road, against Boston College and Virginia Tech. The Eagles and Hokies were the ACC's divisional champions in 2007 and played in the ACC Championship Game.

Tech's road schedule may be one of the most difficult in all of college football. In addition to playing at Boston College and Virginia Tech, the Yellow Jackets also travel to Clemson, North Carolina and Georgia.

Georgia Tech will play home games against Jacksonville State, Mississippi State, Duke, Gardner-Webb, Virginia, Florida State and Miami.

Mississippi State is coming off an 8-5 season in which the Bulldogs won the Liberty Bowl. Florida State is back on Tech's schedule for the first time since 2003. The game against Miami will be a Thursday night game televised nationally by ESPN.

Johnson On The Recruiting Class

"We're really excited about how the class turned out. We think we addressed some needs at a number of positions. We went after some guys who can run and we think we accomplished that with some speed guys. We found a few big guys to play up front on the offensive line. On defense, we feel like we found some good linebackers who can run and do some things within our scheme that will really fit. In the secondary we found some guys who can play multiple positions – either safety or corner and they can switch over and play skill positions on offense."

QUARTERBACK

Sophomore Josh Nesbitt hasn't been crowned the starter, but he's the leader in the clubhouse. Nesbitt has the tools to be an outstanding spread offense quarterback. He is Tech's second-leading returning rusher (339 yards), averaging 6.4 yards per carry. Nesbitt only completed 5-of-13 passes as a true freshman, but has underrated arm strength.

Senior Calvin Booker, the Auburn transfer who played well down the stretch in 2007, worked extremely hard in the spring. The spring also marked the emergence of redshirt freshman Bryce Dykes, a local walk-on, who spent part of spring drills running the No. 1 offense.

And there's more help on the way. Two true freshmen – Jaybo Shaw and Tevin Washington – are perfectly suited for the offense.

B-BACK

The B-back, in the new offense, could potentially be one of the team's leading rushers. The fullback position in the old offense was primarily a blocker.

There is no question that Tech will miss fullback Mike Cox, one of the best blocking backs in college football. However, the Yellow Jackets have a rising star at B-back in sophomore Jonathan Dwyer. Dwyer, who last year rushed for 436 yards (5.3 yards per carry) and nine touchdowns as a true freshman, is Tech's leading returning rusher.

Behind Dwyer are two more sophomores – Quincy Kelly and Luke Cox. Cox, the younger brother of Mike, is eligible this season after transferring from Connecticut. Richard Watson is a bruising true freshman.

A-BACK

Junior Greg Smith, a former wide receiver, and redshirt freshman Roddy Jones, the top candidates to start at the two A-Back positions, give the Yellow Jackets outstanding speed in the slot. Smith was Tech's leading receiver last season. This year he should get more rushing attempts.

Right behind Smith and Jones is senior Andrew Smith, another converted wide receiver, and Austin Barrick, big enough to play on the offensive line.

Embry Peeples and Marcus Wright are two A-backs in the freshmen class.

WIDE RECEIVER

The Jacket receiving corps is extremely young, led by sophomores Demaryius "Bay-Bay" Thomas and Correy Earls. Thomas caught 35 passes for 558 yards (15.9 yards per reception) and four touchdowns. Earls caught just 14 passes in 2007, but the speedster came on strong at the end of the season.

True freshman Tyler Melton and sophomore walk-on Kevin Cone were impressive in the spring. Redshirt freshmen Zach Fisher and R.B. Clyburn give Tech depth. True freshmen Daniel McKayhan and Quentin Sims join the fold in the fall.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The Yellow Jacket offensive line lost a group of experienced veterans, but return a strong nucleus.

Leading the way is senior All-American candidate Andrew Gardner, a first team All-ACC selection at tackle last season. Gardner is a big reason Tech was so efficient in the run and in protecting the quarterback the last two years.

Tech returns 6-7 senior tackle A.J. Smith and 6-5 junior tackle Cord Howard, who split starting duties a year ago. Junior Dan Voss, who started seven games at guard in 'O7, is the likely starter at center.

Junior tackle Jason Hill gained a great deal of experience late last season. Versatile senior David Brown has seen limited action anywhere from guard to tight end. Junior Brad Sellers, a former tight end, moves inside to the offensive line.

Three redshirt freshmen – Nick Claytor, Joseph Gilbert and Clyde Yandell – will make an immediate impact. Tech also recruited well on the line, bringing in highly-touted Omoregie Uzzi, center Nick McRae and tackle Phil Smith.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The defensive line, paced by a pair of returning senior starters at defensive tackle, could be one of Georgia Tech's real strengths in 2008.

Seniors Vance Walker, a first team All-ACC selection in 2007, and Darryl Richard anchor the defensive line. Together, Walker (14 tackles-for-loss in 2007) and Richard (11.5) helped Georgia Tech lead the nation in sacks and rank fourth nationally in tackles-for-loss.

Senior Michael Johnson started just one game at defensive end last year, but the extremely athletic player is projected to be an NFL first-round draft pick. Sophomore Derrick Morgan anchors the other end position after serving as part of the regular rotation last season.

And, there is depth. Senior Elris Anyaibe was the top reserve at tackle last year. Ben Anderson lettered at tackle in 2007. Sophomore Robert Hall, who cracked the two-deep early last season before suffering injuries, will play a key role. Two redshirt freshmen – Jason Peters and Logan Walls – add depth. Two good-sized true freshmen – 6-7 T.J. Barnes and 6-6 Antonio Wilson – join the ranks this fall.

LINEBACKER

Two players with starting experience – junior Shane Bowen and sophomore Anthony Barnes – are back in the fold. Bowen, who missed spring drills after shoulder surgery, started 10 games at outside linebacker last season and recorded 34 tackles and 3.0 sacks. Barnes started the other three games, made 29 tackles including 6.0 tackles-for-loss.

True sophomore Brad Jefferson played in 12 games last season. Redshirt freshman Kyle Jackson started most of the spring at outside linebacker. A number of players including senior Tony Clark, junior Sedric Griffin, senior Matt Braman, senior James Liipfert and sophomore Osahon Tongo will all compete for playing time. Senior Travis Chambers is also back in the mix after not being on the roster last season. Redshirt freshmen Albert Rocker will get a look as well.

Three true freshmen linebackers – B.J. Machen, Malcolm Munroe and Steven Sylvester – give the Yellow Jackets plenty of youth-laden depth.

SECONDARY

The most experienced returnee in the secondary is two-year starting senior cornerback Jahi Word-Daniels, who had 56 tackles, a team-best eight pass break-ups and two interceptions last year. The other corner is up for grabs, with sophomore Marion Butler and redshirt freshman Jarrard Tarrant the leading candidates. Both are skilled, but inexperienced.

Junior Martin Frierson and redshirt freshman Michael Peterson will also compete for playing time at the corner.

At safety, the Jackets return a rising star in sophomore Morgan Burnett, who can play any position in the secondary and led last year's team with three interceptions. Joining Burnett at safety will be sophomore Dominique Reese, a standout on special teams last season, or junior Jake Blackwood, who has the edge in experience. Redshirt freshman Willie White moved from receiver to safety in the spring and senior Troy Garside give Tech depth.

Georgia Tech also signed five true freshman defensive backs.

KICKERS/PUNTERS

There is no getting around the fact that the Yellow Jackets lost one of the best kickers (Travis Bell) and punters (Durant Brooks) in school history. Even so, Tech may not lose much ground in the kicking department.

Scott Blair got to reveal only a portion of his skills last fall when he handled Tech's kickoffs. Behind Blair, Tech ranked among the nation's leaders in kickoff return yardage defense. Blair has shown that he can also punt and kick field goals.

Because the Jackets were so loaded at kicker last year, junior Mohamed Yahiaoui was able to redshirt. In 2006, Yahiaoui handled the majority of Tech's kickoffs and will compete for a role as field goal kicker.

Senior Bret White returns as the dependable long-snapper.

Could be a key performer on the Tech defensive line in 2008... saw limited duty at defensive tackle in '07 behind veterans Darryl Richard and Vance Walker... also saw duty on special teams... redshirted as a true freshman in 2006

2007

Saw action in six games, including five of the last six contests of the regular season... credited with one solo tackle.

2006

Redshirted as a true freshman.

High School

Ranked among the nation's top 30 defensive tackles by Scout.com... also tabbed the No. 30 player in South Carolina by Scout.com... rated the No. 24 player in South Carolina on the Rivals.com list... PrepStar All-Region selection... two-time first-team all-area selection by both the Augusta Chronicle and the Aiken Standard... made 114 tackles as a senior with 15 tackles for loss and six sacks, following 12 tackles with 22 tackles for loss and eight sacks as a junior... team captain for coach Dan Pippin at South Aiken High.

Personal

Full name is Robert Benjamin Anderson... parents are Robert and Sheri Anderson... born February 28, 1988... majoring in management.

MORE FROM BEN ANDERSON

My best non-athletic talent: Fishing

I can do this better than almost anyone: Movie quotes

The most talented player I have ever faced was: Mansfield Wrotto

I can do a really good impression of: Chris Farley

A walk-on kicker and punter who learned a great deal last season working behind senior starters Travis Bell and Durant Brooks... will compete with a host of others to fill those vacant roles in 2008.

2007

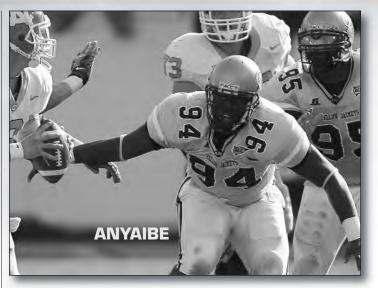

Did not see game action and earned a redshirt.

High School

Lettered four years in soccer and football at Shaw High School... received all-state honors in 2006 and 2007... was a member of French Club, National French Honor Society, Beta Club, National Honor Society, Young Historians and the class government.

Personal

Born Nov. 9, 1988... son of David and Angie Cotton... full name is Chandler Dee Anderson... has three siblings... enjoys reading and working out... plans to major in biology.

A veteran and key reserve on the Tech defensive line the last three seasons... was a part of the regular rotation last season... uses his quickness to be a good pass-rusher... should compete for a starting job in 2008.

Played in all 12 regular season games as a top reserve... credited with 10 tackles on the season including 3.5 tackles-for-loss... had seven solo tackles... recorded 1.0 sacks... had one quarterback hurry... made a mark in the season opener at Notre Dame (Sept. 1) with a sack and 1.5 tackles-for-loss... had two solo tackles, including a tackle-for-loss, vs. Samford (Sept. 8)... matched a season-high with two tackles and forced a fumble at Virginia (Sept. 22).

2006

Saw action in the first 10 games of the season... was injured against North Carolina and did not return until the bowl game... had a pass break-up against Samford... credited with tackles against Troy and Virginia Tech.

2005

Played in every game... had a tackle-for-loss and a fumble recovery against Wake Forest... season-high five tackles, including one shared sack, against Virginia Tech... had one of Tech's season-high seven sacks in the Jackets' victory at third-ranked Miami... redshirted in 2004.

LINWREC

A first-team All-ACC performer at offensive tackle... should be considered one of the nation's top offensive linemen in 2008..

a key reason Tech ranked first in the ACC in rushing and ranked near the top of the ACC in fewest sacks allowed in 2007... a three-year starter... has gained more than 50

pounds since arriving at Tech... has made 39 consecutive starts... helped former teammate

Tashard Choice lead the ACC in rushing in both 2006 and 2007.

2007

Started every game at tackle... earned first team All-ACC honors... earned the first ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week after Tech's O-line completely dominated Notre Dame in the season opener (Sept. 1)... the Yellow Jackets rushed for 259 yards, including 196 by Tashard Choice against the Irish... graded out very well almost every week by then line coach Joe D'Alessandris... was instrumental in keeping Tech quarterbacks from getting sacked during a three-game stretch against Clemson, Maryland and Miami.

2006

Named honorable mention All-ACC... started every game at left tackle... helped the Jackets rank second in the ACC in rushing and blocked for the league's leading rusher, Tashard Choice, who gained nearly 1,500 yards... preseason second-team all-ACC selection by Lindy's, Athlon and The Sporting News.

2005

Started every game at left tackle and was named a first-team Freshman All-America by the Football Writers' Association of America... named to the Freshman All-ACC team by The Sporting News... also tabbed an honorable mention Freshman All-America by TSN... helped Tech lead the ACC in fewest sacks allowed with just 10 and rank third in the league in rushing.

Paul Johnson Head Coach

WESTERN CAROLINA (1979) ■ 1st YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH ■ 12th SEASON OVERALL (107-39)

A highly-successful coach at the U.S. Naval Academy for six seasons and previously at Georgia Southern, Paul Johnson was named head football coach at Georgia Tech on December 7, 2007. Johnson is the 12th head coach in Yellow Jacket football

Johnson coached six years at Navy, where in 2007 the Midshipmen won a fifth straight Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, earned a postseason bowl bid for the fifth consecutive year and beat Notre Dame for the first time since Johnson was a finalist for the 2007 Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year.

In six seasons at Navy, Johnson compiled a record of 45-29. In 11 seasons overall, Johnson's career record stands at 107-39.

Johnson took over a Navy football program that was coming off the worst two-year span in its 123-year history (1-20) and had recorded just two winning seasons in the last 20 years. After a 2-10 mark in Johnson's first year, the Midshipmen achieved what many thought was no longer possible at an Academy. Johnson brought the Midshipmen back into the national spotlight with a 43-19 (.694) record over the last four-plus years.

Johnson dominated the other two Service Academies like no other coach in the school's annals, posting an 11-1 (.917) overall record, including a perfect 6-0 mark against rival Army. Last year's senior class was the first in school history to post a perfect 8-0 mark against Army and Air Force.

"Paul Johnson is the best fit, the best choice for the Georgia Tech head coaching position," Georgia Tech athletic director Dan Radakovich said. "He will educate young men, represent Georgia Tech at the highest level, he will win football games and play for championships.

"He accomplished feats at a Service Academy that many thought were not possible. He looks at his talent and maximizes it. Whether as an assistant coach at Hawai'i, or as the head coach at Georgia Southern or Navy, he has figured out how to be successful."

Johnson's Naw teams improved as each season progressed. Over the last five years, Navy posted a 13-2 (.867) record over the final three games of the season and outscored the opposition 611-335 in those contests. In games in which Johnson had more than a week to prepare for an opponent, the Midshipmen went 15-6 (.714) over the last four years com-

The Midshipmen led the nation in rushing last season for an unprecedented third consecutive year, producing more than 350 yards per game. Under Johnson, Navy never finished lower than third nationally in rushing

Navy ranked among the nation's highest-scoring teams last season, averaging 39.92 points per outing. The 2007 Mids also ranked in the top 10 nationally in kickoff returns and in fewest sacks allowed.

Johnson's teams have been successful off the field as well as Navy ranked No. 1 in the country in graduation rates.

In 2004, Johnson was named Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year after leading Naw to a 10-2 record, tying the school record for wins set in 1905, and won a bowl game (34-19 victory vs. New Mexico in the Emerald Bowl) for just the fifth time in the history of the program.

In 2003, Johnson led Navy to an 8-5 record and brought the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy back to Annapolis for the first time since 1981, propelling Navy to a bowl game for the first time since 1996. The Mids became just the sixth team in NCAA history to go from a winless season to a bowl game in two years or less.

Before arriving at Annapolis, Johnson served as head coach at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001. At Georgia Southern, Johnson posted a 62-10 (.861) record, won two straight I-AA National Championships (1999 and 2000), five consecutive Southern Conference Championships and was named the Division I-AA National Coach of the Year four straight years (1997-2000).

After Johnson took over as head coach at Georgia Southern in 1997, he returned the Eagle program to national prominence statistically and in the won-lost ledger. In addition to Georgia Southern's 62-10 mark, the Eagles scored 2,855 points (39.7 points per game), picked up 25,941 rushing yards (360.3 yards per game), 7,816 passing yards (108.6 yards per game) and 33,757 total yards (468.8 yards per game). GSU scored 380 touchdowns in the Johnson Era, an average of 5.3 per game. The Eagles' scoring margin under Johnson was +21.5 (39.7-18.5).

Johnson picked up a milestone victory in the 2000 I-AA National Championship Game against Montana. Not only did the 27-25 victory give Georgia Southern its second straight national title, but it was also Johnson's 50th career win in four seasons. Only three other coaches in the history of Division I football won 50 or more games in four seasons – Walter Camp (1888-1891, 54-2 at Yale), George Woodruff (1892-1895, 53-4 at Penn) and Bob Pruett (1996-99, 50-4 at Marshall).

Johnson took over a Georgia Southern program in 1997 that was 4-7 the previous year and orchestrated a turnaround that ranked among the NCAA's best, directing the Eagles to a 10-3 record. He was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year by the media and Region II Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association.

In 1998, Johnson guided the Eagles to a perfect 11-O regular season record and the school's sixth NCAA Division I-AA National Championship Game appearance before finishing with a 14-1 mark. He directed a high-powered offensive unit that tied or broke 100 records during the campaign, again earned the league's top coaching honor and received The Sports Network's Eddie Robinson Award – symbolic of the division's national coach-of-the-year selection.

In 1999, Johnson brought Georgia Southern its fifth national title, and the Eagles finished 13-2 while breaking 197 records. For his efforts, Johnson was honored as the 1999 AFCA and Chevrolet I-AA National Coach of the Year.

Johnson duplicated the feat in the 2000 season as the Eagles repeated as national champions, again finishing 13-2, and Johnson captured the AFCA I-AA Coach of the Year award once more.

In five seasons at Georgia Southern, Johnson's squads broke or tied 379 individual and team school, conference, playoff or stadium records, ranked in the top 10 in 21 statistical categories and produced 31 All-Americans. The Eagles won an NCAA I-AA-record 39 consecutive games at

"Paul Johnson is the best fit, the best choice for the Georgia Tech head coaching position. He will educate young men, represent Georgia Tech at the highest level, he will win football games and play for championships."

- Dan Radakovich, Georgia Tech Athletic Director

- Urban Meyer, Florida Head Coach

Johnson was previously Navy's offensive coordinator in 1995 and 1996 and his spread offense made an immediate impact, breaking five school records during the Mids' five-win season in 1995.

Navy posted a 9-3 record the next season in 1996, including a 42-38 victory over California in the Aloha Bowl. It was Navy's first winning season since 1982 and one of only two winning seasons the Mids had during a 19-year span.

Prior to joining the Navy staff, Johnson spent eight seasons as the offensive coordinator at the University of Hawai'i (1987-94). He helped guide the Rainbows to their first Western Athletic Conference title and their first bowl appearance, coordinating an explosive offense that broke or equaled more than 160 school records.

While at Hawai'i, Johnson developed a successful offensive unit which earned top-20 I-A statistical rankings in scoring offense, total offense and rushing offense during six of his eight seasons. He earned top offensive coach honors in the WAC and was named one of the top 10 assistant coaches in the country by The Sporting News.

After first arriving at Georgia Southern in 1983 as defensive line coach, Johnson was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1985. Under his tute-lage, record-setting quarterback Tracy Ham and the Eagle offense re-wrote the school record book while averaging 435 total yards and 36 points per contest. Georgia Southern rolled to a combined 26-4 record and captured a pair of I-AA titles in 1985-86.

Johnson's coaching career began when he was offensive coordinator and line coach at his alma mater, Avery County (N.C.) High School, in 1979-80. He accepted the offensive coordinator's position at Lees-McRae Junior College in 1981, leading his offensive unit to a sixth-place national standing among NJCAA total offense leaders.

Johnson, a native of Newland, N.C., earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Western Carolina in 1979 and a Master's degree in health and physical education from Appalachian State in 1982. He and wife, Susan, are the parents of a daughter, Kaitlyn.

"He's done it at Hawaii, at Georgia Southern, at Navy. He's done it everywhere he's ever been. He knows how to win. I think, personally, it will be a great hire for Georgia Tech. I think he's a hell of a coach, I think his system will work anywhere, as will mine. Obviously, his is run-oriented, and mine is pass-oriented. He's proven that he can take inferior talent and win. This scheme allows you to beat teams that are better than you. There's no way his teams have been physically superior to all those that he's beaten."

- June Jones, SMU Head Coach

"Paul is a very sharp, outstanding offensive mind. He also has a very good feel for the overall game. Paul was not just a guy that wanted to move the ball and score points. He knows how to win and has proven that as a head coach at both Georgia Southern and Navy."

- Bob Wagner, former University of Hawaii Head Coach

Brian Bohannon Quarterbacks/B-backs

GEORGIA (1993) ■ 1st YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Brian Bohannon, who will coach the quarterbacks and B-backs, enters his first season at Georgia Tech and his 12th year working with Yellow Jacket head coach Paul Johnson

During his six years as wide receivers coach at Navy, Bohannon was part of a staff that returned the Midshipmen to the national spotlight. Navy won 35 games over the last four years, earning a school-record four consecutive postseason bowl berths and a school-best four straight Commander-In-Chief's Trophies.

Under Bohannon, Navy's receiving corps emerged as outstanding receivers as well as skilled blockers.

In 2007, Navy's offense put up remarkable numbers. The Midshipmen ranked first nationally in rushing (348.8 ypg), 10th in scoring (39.3 ppg), 22nd in total offense (444.1 ypg) and ninth in sacks allowed (1.08 pg).

In 2005, Bohannon was part of a staff that helped the Mids rushing attack average a nation's best 318.7 yards per contest as Navy went to a bowl game for a third straight year, won a second consecutive bowl game and won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for a third-straight year.

In 2004, Bohannon's efforts helped the wide receiver corps to perform well enough for the Midshipmen to finish 45th in the country in total offense (388.8 yards per game), third in rushing offense (289.5), win a school-record tying 10 games (the most wins since 1905), win the Emerald Bowl and claim the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

In 2003, he helped the Mids lead the nation in rushing (323.2 yards per contest) and set school records for rushing yards per game, total rushing yards (4,202), rushing yards per attempt (5.5), rushing touchdowns (44), total offense (5,506), total offense per game (423.5) and yards per play (6.0).

In 2002, Navy had the third-best rushing average in the country (270.75) and scored 30 or more points on four occasions.

Bohannon coached the wide receivers for three seasons (1997-99) at Georgia Southern before taking over the defensive backs his last two years (2000-01).

During his initial season as defensive backs coach, the secondary played a key role in Georgia Southern's efforts, ranking 18th nationally in pass defense (156.1 yards per game) and 28th in interceptions (16). The Eagles' secondary took another leap forward in 2001, finishing second nationally in pass defense (125.6 yards per game), fourth in scoring defense (12.0 points per game) and sixth in total defense (261.4 yards per game).

A four-year letterwinner and standout as a wide receiver at Georgia, Bohannon started his coaching career at West Georgia before earning his first full-time position at Gardner-Webb (N.C.) as wide receivers coach in 1996

A native of Griffin, Ga., he earned his bachelor's degree in general business from Georgia in 1993 and a master's in business education from West Georgia in 1996. He is married to the former Melanie Cobb and they have three children, sons Blake Patrick (5) and Braden Thomas (4) and baby daughter Brooke Anna (7 months).

Brian Jean-Mary Linebackers

APPALACHIAN STATE (1998) ■ 5th YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Brian Jean-Mary enters his fifth season at Georgia Tech as linebackers coach.

Jean-Mary (pronounced JON-muh-REE) helps coach a Tech unit that has ranked among the nation's Top 30 in rushing defense, total defense and scoring defense each of his four seasons. In particular, the Yellow Jackets have been among the nation's Top 20 against the run all four years.

Under Jean-Mary, Jacket linebackers Phillip Wheeler and Gary Guyton became the core of the Tech defense last season. The duo was first and second on the team in tackles, respectively, and combined for 22.5 tackles-for-loss and 11 sacks in 2007. Wheeler, a third-round NFL draft pick, was once again awarded for his tenacious defense by being selected to the All-ACC second team. As a team, Tech led the nation in sacks and ranked second in tackles-for-loss during the regular season.

In 2006, the linebacker duo of KaMichael Hall and Wheeler developed into two of the top defenders in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Wheeler earned second-team All-America honors as well as second-team All-ACC accolades, while Hall garnered honorable mention All-ACC recognition. Hall was also given a free agent contract by the defending World Champion Indianapolis Colts in 2007.

In 2005, Jean-Mary coached two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference linebacker Gerris Wilkinson, Tech's leading tackler his last two seasons. Wilkinson was a third-round draft pick of the New York Giants. Jean-Mary's linebackers recorded seven of the Yellow Jackets' 21 interceptions.

In 2004, he also worked with Chris Reis, who earned honorable mention All-ACC recognition in his only season at outside linebacker. Wilkinson and Reis flourished at linebacker after moving from defensive end and safety, respectively. Reis signed a free agent contract with the Atlanta Falcons and now plays with the New Orleans Saints.

Jean-Mary came to Tech after one season coaching the defensive backs at North Alabama, one of the top programs in NCAA Division II.

In 2003, he helped the Lions to a 13-1 record, the Gulf South Conference title and a berth in the semifinals of the NCAA Division II playoffs. North Alabama's defense ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense at 14.1 points per game, as well as 25th in pass defense and 26th in total defense.

Jean-Mary previously spent two years (2001-02) as a defensive graduate assistant at South Carolina under Lou Holtz and one year (2000) as a graduate assistant on the strength and conditioning staff at Louisville.

A native of Apopka, Fla., Jean-Mary played college football at Appalachian State, where he earned a bachelor's degree in 1998.

Jean-Mary is married to the former Jerilyn Ardis. The couple's first child, Brittany Nicole, was born in January of 2006.

Charles Kelly cornerbacks

AUBURN (1990) ■ 3rd YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Charles Kelly begins his third season at Georgia Tech and his first season as coach of the cornerbacks. Kelly served as the Yellow Jackets' special teams coordinator in 2006 and 2007.

Kelly, a former defensive coordinator at three different schools, developed Georgia Tech into one of the nation's best special teams units in 2007. The group went from 119th in the nation in kick return defense in 2006 to second in 2007. Under Kelly's guidance, punter Durant Brooks and place-kicker Travis Bell each earned first team All-ACC accolades. Brooks earned the prestigious Ray Guy Award in 2007 and recorded the highest career punting average in ACC history.

In Kelly's first year, in 2006, Brooks earned second-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors. With the combination of Brooks and outstanding coverage, Tech ranked second in the nation in net punting. Brooks averaged better than 45 yards per punt, and almost half of his kicks pinned the opponent inside the 20-yard line.

Kelly spent the previous four seasons at Nicholls State, an NCAA Division I-AA program that captured the Southland Conference title in 2005.

Under Kelly, who served as defensive backs coach during his first two seasons at Nicholls, the Colonels finished as the top-ranked defense in the Southland Conference in 2005 and 17th in NCAA Division I-AA. Nicholls led the Southland in total defense and rushing defense while ranking second in scoring defense.

Kelly was instrumental in developing two-time All-America cornerback Chris Thompson, who was drafted in 2004 by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Kelly went to Nicholls State in 2002 from Eufaula (Ala.) High School, where he served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for two seasons. Prior to his move to the high school ranks, the Ozark, Ala., native spent one season (1999) as defensive coordinator at Henderson State and two seasons as defensive coordinator at Jacksonville State. His term as defensive coordinator at Jacksonville State culminated a five-year stay on the JSU staff (1994-98), and he also coordinated the offense and coached the defensive backs, running backs, quarterbacks and receivers over the course of his stay.

Before going to Jacksonville State, Kelly served one year as a graduate assistant at Auburn and was part of the Tigers' 11-O season in 1993. He spent three seasons as an assistant football coach and baseball coach at Central High School in Phenix City, Ala. (1990-92).

Kelly has coached six players that have made it to the National Football League, including Brooks, Thompson, Delvin Hugley, Calvin Jackson, Chris Schelling and Dell McGee.

A 1990 graduate of Auburn with a degree in Secondary Math Education, Kelly played defensive back under former Tiger coach Pat Dye. His senior class put together a four-year record of 39-7-2 while participating in four bowl games. In 2002, Kelly earned a master's degree in Education from Troy State.

Kelly, 40, and his wife, Kristy, have two daughters, Caroline (9) and Kathleen Claire (5).

Jeff Monken Slot Backs/Special Teams Coordinator

MILLIKIN (1989) ■ 1st YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Jeff Monken, an assistant coach under Paul Johnson at Navy the past six years, begins his first season at Georgia Tech as slot backs coach (also known as the A-Backs) and special teams coordinator.

At Navy, Monken served all six seasons as coach of the slot backs. He tagged on the duties of special teams coordinator in 2005.

Monken was part of a staff that led Navy to success not seen in Annapolis in decades, while making the Midshipmen one of the nation's most prolific offenses. Navy won 35 games over the previous four seasons, advanced to four straight bowl games and earned four consecutive Commander-In-Chief's Trophies.

In 2007, Navy's offense put up remarkable numbers. The Midshipmen ranked first nationally in rushing (348.8 ypg), 10th in scoring (39.3 ppg), 22nd in total offense (444.1 ypg) and ninth in sacks allowed (1.08 pg).

The previous season in 2006, Navy averaged a then-school-record 327 yards rushing per game to lead the nation. The slots rushed for 1,619 yards and 13 touchdowns on just 196 carries (8.4 yards per carry) in 2006. Reggie Campbell set a single-season school record by averaging 7.1 yards per carry and his career average of 7.9 yards per carry is third all-time at Navy.

In 2005, the Mids averaged a nation's-best 318.7 yards per contest as Navy won a school-record second-straight bowl game and captured the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy. As a unit, Monken's slot backs rushed for 1,399 yards and 19 touchdowns on just 169 carries (8.3 yards per carry) and caught 29 passes for 683 yards and four touchdowns (23.6 yards per reception). Campbell tied Barry Sanders, among others, in the NCAA record books when he scored five touchdowns in a bowl game as the Mids routed Colorado State, 51-30, to win the Poinsettia Bowl.

In 2004, the slot backs led the Midshipmen to finish 45th in the country in total offense (388.8 yards per game), third in rushing offense (289.5), win a school-record tying 10 games (the most wins since 1905), win the Emerald Bowl and claim the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy in back-to-back years. One of Monken's pupils, Eric Roberts, became the first player in Navy history and just the 35th player in NCAA history to have more than 1,000 career rushing and receiving yards.

In 2003, Navy's slot backs were explosive, averaging 9.8 yards per carry and 21.8 yards per catch as the Mids led the nation in rushing (323.2 yards per contest) and set then-school records for rushing yards per game, total rushing yards (4,202), rushing yards per attempt (5.5), rushing touchdowns (44), total offense (5,506), total offense per game (423.5) and yards per play (6.0).

In 2002, Navy had the third-best rushing average in the country (270.75) and scored 30 or more points on four occasions.

Monken went to Navy from Georgia Southern, where he coached the slot backs. Georgia Southern was the top-ranked rushing team in the country in 1999 (419 yards per game) and 2001 (323.6 yards per game). He also headed up the Eagles' kickoff and punt return teams, as well as the punt team. Georgia Southern's punt team ranked fourth in the nation in 2001, averaging a net of 38.71 yards.

Monken has experienced a wide variety of duties throughout his career – beginning in 1989 as a graduate assistant at Hawai'i. After a one-year stint as a graduate assistant at Arizona State in 1991, he moved on to Buffalo, where he served as wide receivers and tight ends coach and was the recruiting coordinator. Prior to his arrival in Statesboro, he also served on the staffs at Morton (III.) High School (head coach) and Concordia (III.) University (offensive line).

Monken comes from a long line of coaches, as 12 members of his family have been or currently are high school or college football coaches. Monken's father, Mike, and his four brothers, were all high school head coaches at the same time in Illinois and were featured in Sports Illustrated.

Al "Buzz" Preston Wide Receivers

HAWAI'I (1982) ■ 1st YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Al "Buzz" Preston, who has enjoyed success from Honolulu to South Bend, begins his first season in Atlanta as Georgia Tech's wide receivers coach.

Preston comes to Tech after serving one season at New Mexico, where he helped lead the Lobos to their first bowl victory in more than 45 years. As New Mexico's running backs coach in 2007, Preston coached Lobo junior running back Rodney Ferguson, who earned first team All-Mountain West Conference honors for the second straight year after rushing for 1,177 yards and 13 touchdowns.

Preston has 28 seasons of collegiate coaching experience, including two stints at Stanford (1999-2001, 2006). During his first three-year run with the Cardinal, Preston was part of two bowl teams that were also two of the best squads in Stanford history. He helped coach the Cardinal to the 1999 Pac-10 title on its way to the 2000 Rose Bowl. In 2001, Stanford put together a 9-3 record and was ranked among the top 10 teams in the nation during the year before playing in the Seattle Bowl against Georgia Tech.

Following his three seasons at Stanford under former head coach Tyrone Willingham, Preston went with Willingham to Notre Dame for three more seasons (2002-04) to coach the running backs and serve as special teams coordinator. He helped lead the Irish to two bowl games with appearances in the Gator Bowl in 2002 and the Insight Bowl following the 2003 regular season.

Under Preston's tutelage, Julius Jones rushed for 1,268 yards and 10 touchdowns as a senior at Notre Dame in 2003. Jones also had 1,568 all-purpose yards and a school-record three 200-yard rushing games in '03 en route to honorable mention All-America honors. Jones went on to be selected in the second

Before coming to Stanford for the first time, Preston was the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator/QB coach at UNLV in 1998. Prior to that, he coached running backs at Washington State from 1994-97. During his four-year term at Washington State, Preston was part of a coaching staff that guided the Cougars to the Pacific-10 Conference championship in 1997 and its first Rose Bowl appearance in 67 years. The Cougar offense broke the Pac-10 record for most total yards in a single season.

One of Preston's pupils, Mike Black, gained 1,157 yards rushing and was named to All-Pac-10. The Cougars finished 10-2 overall and were ranked ninth in the nation.

Preston also coached at his alma mater, Hawai'i, from 1987-93, when he served on the same coaching staff with Paul Johnson. He had several roles during his tenure with the Rainbows, including coaching the offensive special teams, receivers and defensive backs, while also serving as the strength and conditioning coordinator. Preston's seven-year stay at Preston's first full-time coaching came at Southern Illinois from 1984-86 when he tutored receivers and the defensive backfield. During his three seasons in Carbondale, SIU's defense improved dramatically – from eighth to second in the conference – while nine of his pupils received all-conference recognition.

He was a graduate assistant at Hawai'i in 1980 and 1981, a part-time coach at UH in 1982, and a graduate assistant at Washington in 1983. During his career, Preston has also been a guest coach for the Toronto Argonauts, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Miami Dolphins and Philadelphia Eagles.

A native of Los Angeles, Preston received a bachelor's degree in Speech from Hawai'i in 1982. He was a two-year letterwinner (1978-79) with the Rainbow football team. Preston, 51, is a 1975 graduate of Banning High School in Los Angeles. He and his wife, Audrey, have three children: Amber (21), Evan (18) and Quinn (9).

Mike Sewak co-Offensive Line

VIRGINIA (1981) ■ 1st YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Mike Sewak, who worked alongside Paul Johnson at Hawai'i and later replaced him as head coach at Georgia Southern, enters his first season as Georgia Tech's co-offensive line coach. Sewak, who is extremely familiar with Johnson's offense, will focus primarily on the Yellow Jacket centers and guards.

Sewak, Johnson's offensive coordinator at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001, replaced Johnson as head coach of the Eagles in 2002. He produced a record of 35-14 as Georgia Southern's head coach and led the Eagles to three NCAA Division I-AA playoffs appearances and two Southern Conference championships. He was named the 2004 Southern Conference Coach of the Year.

In his first season as head coach in 2002, Sewak led Georgia Southern to the I-AA semifinals and within a last-second missed field goal of the national championship game. The Eagles finished the season with an 11-3 record, won the school's sixth consecutive league title and made their fifth straight national semifinals appearance. In addition, Sewak's offense led the nation in rushing, averaging 386.2 yards per game.

Georgia Southern followed with an uncharacteristic 7-4 mark in 2003, a season which saw Sewak valiantly sidestep adversity and numerous key injuries to guide GSU to victories in six of its last eight games and earn his second straight rushing title as a head coach with a 335.6 yards per game average.

Sewak put GSU back on track in 2004. Georgia Southern rolled through the regular season with an offensive juggernaut, averaging 47 points per game and winning eight games in a row between losses to I-A Georgia and Southern Conference cochampion Furman, the No. 2 ranked team in I-AA.

While young on both sides of the ball in 2005, Georgia Southern led I-AA in rushing again. After a 1-2 start, the Eagles won seven of their last eight games to clinch an at-large playoff bid. The only loss during that stretch was to Appalachian State, the Southern Conference champion and the No. 2 seed in the I-AA playoffs. Sewak also led the Eagles to a win over Furman when the Paladins were ranked No. 1 in the country.

As offensive coordinator under Johnson at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001, Sewak's offensive unit consistently ranked as one of the nation's best at the NCAA Division I-AA level during the five-year span. After finishing second in rushing offense, total offense and scoring offense in 1998, the Eagles improved to a first-place national standing in all three categories in 1999 – averaging 419.0 rushing yards, 551.7 total yards and 50.0 points per game. GSU ranked third nationally in rushing (331.1 ypg) in 2000.

In all, as Georgia Southern's offensive coordinator from 1997 to 2001, the Eagles rolled to a 62-10 mark, scored 2,855 points (39.7 ppg), picked up 25,941 rushing yards (360.3 ypg), 7,816 passing yards (108.6 ypg) and 33,757 total yards (468.8 ypg). Sewak also played a key role in helping lead Georgia Southern to five straight Southern Conference championships and NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearances, three national championship game showings and two national titles in 1999 and 2000.

In addition, three Georgia Southern offensive linemen earned All-America honors under his direct guidance from 1997 to 2001. Guard Mark Williams, who also was the recipient of back-to-back Southern Conference Jacob's Blocking Trophies in '97 and '98, tackle Rich McGrath and center Matt Winslette all earned national honors under Sewak's leadership.

During his time at Georgia Southern, Sewak took an active role in the community, serving as a member of the Parent-Teacher Organization (PTO) in the Bulloch County (Ga.) School District. He kept ties with the Special Olympics program, serving as a volunteer in various capacities, including all competition-day activities. He also instilled a community relations leadership role for his players who spent many lunch and reading sessions with children at Statesboro's Mill Creek Elementary School and donated their time to the March of Dimes Walk America and "Operation Cleanup".

Sewak was appointed as the honorary chairperson of the Keep Bulloch Beautiful campaign in February, 2002, and was selected to a similar capacity for the 2003 Bulloch County's Walk America in January.

Prior to his second stint at Georgia Southern, Sewak helped turn around a struggling program at Ohio University as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach under current Wake Forest head coach Jim Grobe in 1995 and 1996. The Bobcats, after going 0-11 prior to Sewak's arrival, went 2-8-1 in '95 before posting a 6-6 record in 1996 – the school's best mark since 1982. Sewak directed an offensive unit which ranked first in the Mid-America Conference in rushing with a 274.0 per game average.

Prior to Ohio, Sewak spent eight years as an assistant coach at Hawai'i, eight years as an assistant coach at Hawaii, where he coached the Warriors' offensive line for seven seasons and the wide receivers for one. During his tenure in Honolulu, Hawaii won the 1992 Western Athletic Conference championship, broke more than 150 offensive records, and finished among the nation's offensive leaders each year, averaging 31.7 points and 418 yards per game.

Sewak's first stint at Georgia Southern came as an assistant coach with the Eagles in 1985 and 1986 when he worked under coach Erk Russell. Sewak coached the running backs and the defensive backs on national championship teams in 1985 and 1986, respectively. The Eagles captured their first two NCAA Division I-AA titles those seasons, recording consecutive 13-2 records.

Sewak's first association with Georgia Tech came in 1984 when he served as a graduate assistant tight ends coach under head coach Bill Curry.

A native of Johnstown, Pa., Sewak began his career in 1982 at Hobart (N.Y.) College where he served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

A three-year letterman as an offensive lineman for the University of Virginia, Sewak earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from UVA in 1981. He was invited to tryouts with the Baltimore Colts and Pittsburgh Steelers after the completion of his collegiate playing eligibility.

He and wife, the former Robin Farmery of Marietta, Ga., are the parents of three children - Michael Robert, Olivia and Nicholas.

Giff Smith Defensive Line/Recruiting Coordinator

GEORGIA SOUTHERN (1991) ■ 5th YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

96

Giff Smith, who has developed a national reputation as an outstanding recruiter and defensive coach, enters his fifth season at Georgia Tech as defensive line coach and third season as recruiting coordinator. He also reunites with Paul Johnson, whom he worked with at Georgia Southern a decade ago.

Smith's defensive line was one of the premier units in the ACC in 2007. Georgia Tech ranked first nationally in sacks and second in tackles-for-loss while ranking in the top 30 in rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense. Junior tackle Vance Walker earned first team All-ACC honors and senior end Darrell Robertson was a second team selection. Junior Darryl Richard was second team Academic All-American.

Also in 2007, Smith watched eight true freshmen that he helped recruit play key roles as rookies. Running back Jonathan Dwyer and quarterback Josh Nesbitt, two highly-recruited Georgians, highlighted one of the nation's top recruiting classes.

In each of Smith's four seasons at Tech, the Yellow Jackets have ranked in the top 30 nationally in rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense. The Georgia Tech defense has been exceptionally strong against the run, ranking in the top 20 nationally each of the past four seasons.

In 2006, two of Smith's defensive linemen made the All-ACC team. Tackle Joe Anoai was a first team selection, and end Adamm Oliver earned second team honors.

In 2003-04, Smith worked with All-ACC defensive end Eric Henderson, the Yellow Jackets' all-time leader in tackles-for-loss. Henderson is now with the Cincinnati Bengals of the National Football League.

Smith came to Tech in 2004 after five seasons at Tulane, where he coached the Green Wave's defensive line all five years while serving as recruiting coordinator his last three years. He also held the title of associate head coach.

Smith has strong ties to the state of Georgia. A native of the Atlanta suburb of Mableton, he attended Pebblebrook High School and then played and coached at Georgia Southern.

A 1991 graduate of Georgia Southern, Smith was a member of three NCAA I-AA national championship teams at the school in 1986, 1989 and 1990. A three-time All-America defensive end, he helped the Eagles to a perfect 15-0 mark in 1989, and as a senior in 1990, he served as team captain.

He later spent three seasons at his alma mater, working with the wide receivers in 1996 and then the secondary under Johnson in 1997-98. During his time on the staff, the Eagles won a pair of Southern Conference titles [1997-98] and advanced to the NCAA I-AA national championship game in 1998.

Smith began his coaching career in 1991 as a graduate assistant at Arkansas, where remained three years before moving to Georgia for two seasons.

Smith was inducted into the Georgia Southern University Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000. He is married to the former Jennifer Erickson. The couple has two children, Ava, and baby boy, Sam.

Todd Spencer Co-Offensive Line

PACIFIC LUTHERAN (1979) ■ 1st YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Todd Spencer begins his 25th year of coaching and his first season at Georgia Tech as coach of the offensive line, with a primary focus on the tackle position.

Spencer comes to Georgia Tech after 11 seasons at the Naval Academy, including six seasons under head coach Paul Johnson. Spencer saw firsthand the remarkable turnaround of the Midshipmen football program.

Over the previous four seasons, Navy won 35 games, advanced to a postseason bowl game four consecutive years and won a school-record four straight Commander-In-Chief's Trophies.

In 2007, Spencer helped the Navy offense produce amazing numbers. The Midshipmen ranked first nationally in rushing (348.8 ypg), 10th in scoring (39.3 ppg), 22nd in total offense (444.1 ypg) and Spencer's offensive line allowed just 1.08 sacks per game, which ranked ninth nationally.

Spencer teamed up with Ken Niumatalolo, Johnson's successor at Navy, in 2006 to coach an offensive line that helped pave the way for the nation's top rushing offense for the third time in the past five seasons. In 2005, Spencer was part of a staff that helped the Mids average a nation's-best 318.7 yards per contest, as Navy won a then-school-record second-straight bowl game and claimed the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

In 2004, Spencer's efforts helped an offensive line that was hampered by injuries all year to perform well enough for the Midshipmen to finish third in the country in rushing (289.5), win a school-record tying 10 games (the most wins since 1905), win the Emerald Bowl and capture the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy in back-to-back years.

Navy's offensive line was key in the NCAA record 26-play, 94-yard, 14:26 epic drive in the Emerald Bowl. Offensive guard August Roitsch was named to the Sports Illustrated All-Bowl Team, while the starting offensive line was selected to the College Football News All-Bowl Team.

In 2003, despite a lack of experience up front, the Mids led the nation in rushing (323.2 yards per contest) and set school records for rushing yards per game, total rushing yards (4,202), rushing yards per attempt (5.5), rushing touchdowns (44), total offense (5,506), total offense per game (423.5) and yards per play (6.0) as Navy went 8-5, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and earned a berth in the Houston Bowl.

In 2002, Spencer developed Derek Jaskowiak into a College Football News All-Independent selec-

Spencer brought a vast knowledge of the option at tack to Annapolis after spending six seasons as the offensive line coach at option-oriented Oregon State. In 1993, Oregon State's rushing offense finished second in the nation, averaging 300.6 yards per game.

Known for his intensity on the field, Spencer has also been the offensive line coach at Northern Illinois (1990) and Texas-El Paso (1989), and was the offensive coordinator at Southern Utah (1988) and Trinity Valley Community College (1986-87). He got into the major college ranks as a graduate assistant (defensive backs) for Rich Brooks at Oregon (1984-85) and was a graduate assistant (offensive line) for Fred Akers at Texas (1985-86).

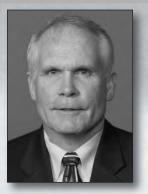

A native of Beaverton, Ore., Spencer attended Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash., from 1974-76, and was a defensive back under Hugh Campbell, a former head coach of the Houston Oilers. He then transferred to Pacific Lutheran (1977-79), where he played safety for two years. Spencer earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Pacific Lutheran (1979) and his M.A. from Linfield College in physical education in 1981

He is the father of two daughters, Whitney (19) and Ashley (18).

Dave Wommack Defensive Coordinator

MISSOURI SOUTHERN (1978) ■ 1st YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

COM

BLINWR

Dave Wommack, a veteran with 28 years of collegiate coaching experience, begins his first season at Georgia Tech as the Yellow Jackets' defensive coordinator.

Wommack comes to Atlanta after serving one season as linebackers coach at Southern Mississippi. Wommack helped lead Southern Miss to an appearance in the 2007 Papajohns.com bowl after a 7-5 regular season. The Golden Eagles led Conference USA in scoring defense and ranked second or third in the league in total defense, rushing defense, pass efficiency defense, pass defense and sacks

Wommack served on the coaching staff at

South Carolina under Steve Spurrier as secondary coach in 2005 and outside linebackers coach in '06. His final year in Columbia the Gamecocks went 8-5 and defeated Houston, 44-36, in the Liberty Bowl.

Prior to South Carolina, he spent a four-year stint at Arkansas from 2001-04, including the last three years as the defensive coordinator. He also coached the secondary, free safeties, cornerbacks and inside linebackers. The Razorbacks made appearances in the Independence Bowl (2003), Music City Bowl (2002) and Cotton Bowl (2001).

Wommack's first of two stints at Southern Miss came during a seven-year span from 1994-2000, one of the most successful periods in Golden Eagle history. He was the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach in 1999 and 2000. He coached the outside linebackers in 2000, the middle and strong-side linebackers in 1999 and defensive backs from 1994-98.

Southern Miss was a founding member of Conference USA in 1996 and won three of the first four championships (1996, 1997 and 1999). The Golden Eagles made four straight bowl appearances from 1997-00, winning the 1997 and 1999 Liberty Bowls and the 2000 GMAC Bowl. All-Americans Cedric Scott and Leo Barnes were the defensive leaders.

As defensive coordinator, the 2000 defense finished second in the nation in total defense, eighth in scoring defense, fifth in pass defense and fourth in pass efficiency defense. The Golden Eagles collected an 8-4 record that season and won the GMAC Bowl, 28-21, over No. 13 TCU.

His 1999 defense was No. 7 in the nation in turnover margin and No. 8 in rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense. All-American Adalius Thomas and T.J. Slaughter were the defensive leaders. Southern Miss posted a 9-3 record that season, won its second C-USA title and won the Liberty Bowl, 23-17, over Colorado State.

The 1998 Southern Miss squad ranked 18th nationally in scoring defense, finished with a 7-5 record and made an appearance in the Humanitarian Bowl.

The 1997 Golden Eagle squad posted a 9-3 record and won the second Conference USA championship. Southern Miss defeated Pitt, 41-7, in the Liberty Bowl, the first bowl game for the Golden Eagles since 1990. All-American cornerback and C-USA Defensive Player of the Year Patrick Surtain ranked 10th in the nation in interceptions and was drafted No. 44 in the NFL Draft. Defensive back Jamaal Alexander was a sixth-round pick.

The 1996 defense ranked No. 3 nationally in turnover margin and No. 8 in rushing defense. Southern Miss ranked seventh nationally in interceptions with 18, led by Surtain. The Golden Eagles posted an 8-3 record and shared the conference title with Houston.

During his first season at Southern Miss in 1994, the Golden Eagle secondary ranked second in the nation with 25 interceptions. Those interceptions contributed to the Golden Eagles' national-best 41 takeaways.

He also coached at UNLV as defensive coordinator from 1992-93, Southwest Missouri State as defensive coordinator from 1986-91, Bemidji State as defensive coordinator in 1985, two years as defensive line coach at Missouri, 1983-84, and four years at Arkansas (1979-82) as a graduate assistant, assistant strength and conditioning coach and the last two years as the wide receivers coach.

While at Missouri, the Tigers appeared in the Holiday Bowl (1983). The Razorbacks made it to four straight bowl games while Wommack was on staff – the 1980 Sugar Bowl, 1980 Hall of Fame Bowl, 1981 Gator Bowl and the 1982 Bluebonnet Bowl.

A 1974 graduate of Reeds Springs (Mo.) High School, Wommack was a three-year letterwinner (center) at Missouri Southern. He graduated with a bachelor's degree from Missouri Southern in 1978 and his master's degree from Arkansas in 1979.

The Kimberling City, Mo., native and his wife, the former Leslie Ann Wilkins, have two children, Kane and Hayley.

Nathan Burton

Graduate Assistant Coach

GEORGIA TECH (2005) ■ 4th YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

A Georgia Tech graduate and a former four-year letterwinner for the Yellow Jacket football team, Nathan Burton begins his fourth season as part of the coaching staff.

Burton, who began his coaching career as a student coach in 2005, enters his third season as a graduate assistant coach while pursuing his graduate degree from Tech.

In his role, Burton assists the coaching staff with the day-to-day operations of the program, game-day duties, working with the scout team and assisting with on-campus recruiting.

Burton first joined Yellow Jacket football as a walk-on in 2000. He played in 12 of the team's 13 games as a freshman and eventually earned a full scholarship under then-head coach Chan Gailey. Burton was a key part of the Tech secondary, serving as a starter in the nickel and dollar packages.

Burton earned his degree in biology, with a business option, from Tech in 2005. He is currently working on a graduate degree in the College of Science. Burton and wife, Britney, reside in Atlanta.

Eric Ciano

Director of Player Development

SPRINGFIELD (1997) ■ 4th YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Eric Ciano is in his fourth season as Georgia Tech's Director of Player Development. He oversees Tech's strength and conditioning program for all sports while working primarily with the football team.

Ciano came to Tech in 2004 from the University of Tennessee, where he served as associate head strength and conditioning coach since 2002. He previously spent two years (2000-02) as the head strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech, following two years (1997-99) as a graduate assistant at Tennessee.

Ciano earned his bachelor's degree in 1997 from Springfield (Mass.) College, where he lettered in football. He added a master's degree from Tennessee in 1999. A certified collegiate strength and conditioning coach, Ciano is a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Association and the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Ciano is married to the former Ashley Klimkiewicz.

Tom Conner

Equipment Manager

ALABAMA (1980) ■ 17th YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Tom Conner is in his 17th season as Georgia Tech's Equipment Manager.

A certified athletic equipment manager, Conner is responsible for procuring and maintaining all equipment and uniforms for the football program and also assists in ordering gear for Tech's other sports programs.

Conner came to Tech in 1992 after four years as the equipment manager at the United States Naval Academy. He also has experience at the professional level after serving four years (1982-86) as the head equipment manager for the Birmingham Stallions of the United States Football League.

He then worked one year (1987) as Assistant Equipment Manager at Duke University before moving to Navy in 1988. Conner also spent two years as assistant equipment manager at the University of Missouri

Conner earned his bachelor of science degree in physical education in 1980 from the University of Alabama, where he worked four years as a student manager for the football team.

Conner, who completed a two-year seat as a member of the Schutt Manufacturers Advisory Board, was honored as the AEMA District III Equipment Manager of the Year for 1997-98.

A native of Signal Mountain, Tenn., Conner is married to the former Pamela Bushman, and the couple has a 13-year-old son.

J.R. Dorman

Football Office Assistant

SOUTH CAROLINA (2003) ■ 1st YEAR AT TECH

J.R. Dorman, who spent the previous two seasons as an assistant coach at Wittenberg University, begins his first year at Georgia Tech as a football office assistant.

At Wittenberg, Dorman coached wide receivers for two years, helping the Red and White to records of 7-4 in 2006 and 8-2 in 2007.

The grandson of Robert Dorman, a Wittenberg football letterwinner in 1938 and 1939, J.R. Dorman spent the 2005 season as an assistant at Denison, working primarily with the linebackers.

A graduate of the University of South Carolina, Dorman got his professional start with the National Football League's Houston Texans in 2004, serving as an intern on the staff of Dom Capers. With the Texans, Dorman worked primarily in the scouting department, in addition to some duties with the defense. Prior to his stint with the Texans he spent five years under Lou Holtz at South Carolina as a student assistant, gaining experience in a wide range of areas, including defensive backs, special teams and recruiting. Dorman majored in sports administration at South Carolina.

Clay Farr

Athletic Trainer

GEORGIA TECH (1996) ■ 9th YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Clay Farr enters his ninth overall year at Georgia Tech, his alma mater.

Farr, who has worked two different stints on The Flats, assists head athletic trainer Jay Shoop with all athletic training duties relating to the football program. He also oversees athletic training for the baseball program and assists in the day-to-day care of all Yellow Jacket student-athletes.

Farr's first association with Georgia Tech came as a student, from 1992-96, when he worked as a student trainer for the Yellow Jacket football and men's basketball programs.

Following his graduation from Georgia Tech in 1996, Farr spent two years as a graduate assistant at Clemson, working with the Tiger's men's soccer team. He obtained his graduate degree from Clemson in 1998.

A native of Ware Shoals, S.C., Farr served an internship in 1996 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He is currently in a pool of athletic trainers for U.S. Soccer and he has previously worked with the U.S. national team.

Farr is a huge follower of international soccer, having attended games in eight different countries. Farr and his dog, Fixxxer, reside in Atlanta.

Brett Gilliland

Graduate Assistant Coach

WEST ALABAMA (2004) ■ 4th YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Brett Gilliland enters his fourth year at Georgia Tech and his third season as a graduate assistant coach and will work with the B-backs in 2008.

Gilliland began his career at Georgia Tech as assistant director of football operations in 2005. In 2006, he moved into a coaching role for a Yellow Jacket team that played in the ACC Championship game. Gilliland worked with Tech's wide receivers, including All-American and Biletnikoff Award winner Calvin Johnson.

In 2007, Gilliland continued to work with the Yellow Jacket offense, primarily with the quarterbacks.

Before coming to Georgia Tech, Gilliland spent one season as wide receivers coach at his alma mater, West Alabama.

Gilliland was a standout quarterback at West Alabama, where he played in 42 games, including 27 as a starter. In 2002, Gilliland passed for a school-record 3,213 yards to lead the Gulf South Conference in passing while earning all-conference honors.

In 2003, Gilliland was a regional finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy. He finished his career as the owner of West Alabama career records for passing yards (6,689), completion percentage (.591) and total offense (6,847 yards).

Gilliland earned a degree from West Alabama in 2004, majoring in physical education and minoring in business administration. Gilliland (born June 2, 1981) is a native of Pensacola, Fla. He and wife, Amanda, reside in Atlanta.

Liam Klein

Director of Player Personnel

MONMOUTH (2001) ■ 6th YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Liam Klein, a member of the Georgia Tech staff since 2003, enters his second year as the Yellow Jacket Director of Player Personnel.

Klein directs Tech's coaching clinics, camps and other events while administering the Jackets' oncampus recruiting efforts and serving as the team's academic liaison.

Klein served as a graduate assistant for three seasons, working with the Yellow Jackets' nationally-ranked defense, before being promoted in 2007. In addition to preparing scouting reports and coordinating the scout team, he helped coach linebackers in 2006 after assisting with the defensive line in 2004-05. During his three seasons as a graduate assistant, Tech's defense ranked in the top 30 in the nation in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and pass efficiency defense.

Klein originally came to Tech prior to the 2003 season and spent six months as assistant director of football operations before moving to the coaching staff.

Klein also has two years of coaching experience at the NCAA I-AA level, serving as outside linebackers and safeties coach for Harvard in 2002 and defensive line coach for Lafayette College in 2001.

A native of Norwood, N.J., Klein started three years on the offensive line for Division I-AA Monmouth University. He earned a bachelor's degree from Monmouth in education and interdisciplinary in history and political science in 2001.

Todd McCarthy

Director of Video Operations

VCU (1992) ■ 11th YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Todd McCarthy enters his 11th season at Georgia Tech as Director of Video Operations after joining the Tech staff in the spring of 1998.

McCarthy handles all practice, game and opponents' video for the coaching staff while overseeing Tech's video operations.

In 2005, the Tech video department received the SAVVY Award from the Collegiate Sports Video Association for the year's top highlight video. McCarthy is a three-time winner of the Atlantic Coast Conference Video Director of the Year award.

McCarthy spent two years (1996-98) as Director of Sports Video at the University of Pittsburgh and three years (1993-96) in the same capacity at the University of Richmond. He also worked two years as a videographer and editor in the sports department at WRIC-TV, the ABC affiliate in Richmond, Va.

A native of Richmond, Va., McCarthy earned his bachelor's degree in Broadcast Communications from Virginia Commonwealth University in 1992.

Lamar Owens

Football Office Assistant

U.S. NAVAL ACADEMY (2006) ■ 1st YEAR AT TECH

Lamar Owens, who played for Paul Johnson at the U.S. Naval Academy, enters his first year at Georgia Tech as a football office assistant.

A native of Savannah, Ga., Owens graduated from Benedictine Military School in 2002 before moving on to the Naval Academy.

The co-captain directed Navy to an 8-4 campaign and a San Diego Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl victory over Colorado State in 2005.

Ówens rushed for 122 yards on 19 carries in his first career start to become just the 14th Navy quarterback to rush for over 100 yards in a game and just the third Mids QB to eclipse 100 yards rushing in his first start.

Owens rushed for 880 yards and 11 touchdowns, while throwing for 1,299 yards and six touchdowns his senior campaign. He won the Joe Bellino Award as the team's leading rusher and the E.E. "Rip" Miller Award as the season's most valuable player, as voted on by his teammates. Owens set two single-season and two career individual records and finished his career with 1,009 rushing yards.

CLARKSON COLLEGE (1968) ■ 15th YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

A 14-year veteran of the Georgia Institute of Technology, Dr. Gary Schuster, who also serves as Tech's provost and executive vice president for Academic Affairs, was named the institution's interim president, effective July 1, 2008.

Schuster will serve as interim president until the Chancellor and Board of Regents select a new president. He took over leadership from G. Wayne Clough, who stepped down June 30 to become the 12th Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, in Washington, D.C.

In addition to his current position as provost and executive vice president, Schuster also holds the position of professor and Vasser Woolley Chair of Chemistry and Biochemistry. Previously, he served as dean of the College of Sciences.

Schuster holds a bachelor of science in chemistry from Clarkson College of Technology, Potsdam, N.Y. (now Clarkson University) (1968) and a Ph.D. in chemistry from the University of Rochester, N.Y. (1971). After 20 years in the Chemistry Department at the University of Illinois, at Urbana-Champaign, he became dean of the College of Sciences and Professor of Chemistry and Biochemistry at Georgia Tech in 1994. He was a National Institutes of Health Post Doctoral Fellow at Columbia University, a Fellow of the Sloan Foundation and a Guggenheim Fellow. He was awarded the 2006 Charles Holmes Herty Medal recognizing his work and service contributions since his arrival at Georgia Tech.

Schuster is a nationally known scholar and researcher with an extensive list of published articles on topics ranging from biochemistry through physical chemistry as well as a number of scientific discoveries with commercial applications.

Dr. Daniel Schrage

Faculty Athletic Representative U.S. MILITARY ACADEMY (1967) 15th YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Dr. Daniel Schrage, a professor in the School of Aerospace Engineering at Georgia Tech, serves as the Yellow Jackets' Faculty Athletic Representative (FAR).

In January 2008 he began his third year as the Georgia Tech FAR. Prior to this he served four years on the Georgia Tech Athletic Board.

Dr. Schrage also serves as the Director of the U.S. Army Center of Excellence in Rotorcraft Technology (CERT) and the Director of the Center for Aerospace Systems Engineering (CASE) at Georgia Tech. He teaches graduate and undergraduate courses and supervises research in Integrated Product/ Process Development (IPPD) and Aerospace Systems Design, as well as in many other aerospace engineering disciplines. He has numerous published articles and several book chapters in these areas.

Prior to coming to Georgia Tech in 1984, Dr. Schrage served as an engineer, manager and government senior executive involved in the design and development of most of today's Army aviation systems. He has also served on the Army Science Board, the Air Force Studies Board, several NASA and FAA committees and as a consultant to a broad cross-section of the aerospace industry. He is a Fellow of both the American Helicopter Society (AHS) and the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics (AIAA).

A 1967 graduate of the United States Military Academy, Schrage went on to earn an M.S. in Aerospace Engineering from Georgia Tech in 1974, an M.A. in Business Administration from Webster University in 1975 and a D.Sc. degree in Mechanical Engineering from Washington University in St. Louis in 1978.

Dr. Schrage has been married to Nancy Granberg Schrage for 41 years. They have 102 four children and five grandchildren.

Dan Radakovich Director of Athletics

INDIANA [PA] (1980) ■ 3rd YEAR AT GEORGIA TECH

Entering his third year as Georgia Tech's Director of Athletics, Dan Radakovich has brought a new vision for excellence to the Yellow Jackets' storied athletics tradition.

In a relatively short amount of time since arriving in Atlanta, Radakovich has put his mark on Georgia Tech's athletics program.

In the 2007-08 academic year, Radakovich earned national praise from his peers with the hiring of football coach Paul Johnson, who had been extremely successful at Navy and previously at Georgia Southern.

Yellow Jacket teams enjoyed a solid year in '07-08. The women's basketball team, emerging as one of the top programs in the South, earned its second straight NCAA Tournament appearance. The defending NCAA champion women's tennis team returned to the Elite Eight. The baseball team overcame major obstacles to win more than 40 games and advance to the NCAA Tournament. The softball team, another rising program, returned to the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. The football team won seven regular season games and went to a bowl game for the 11th consecutive year. The swimming & diving teams set 19 school records, sent five individuals to the NCAA championships and saw two divers earn All-American honors for the first time in Tech history.

The past year was a remarkable one for several individual student-athletes. Sophomore Amanda McDowell, one year after helping lead the women's tennis team to a national crown, won the individual NCAA championship in Tulsa, Okla. McDowell's senior teammate, Kristi Miller, graduated from Tech in the spring with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average. She also leaves the Flats as Tech's all-time leader in victories and she earned postgraduate scholarship honors from the ACC and the NCAA.

There were other outstanding individual accomplishments in 2007-08. Tashard Choice led the ACC in rushing for the second straight year and was one of three Yellow Jackets taken in the NFL draft. Golfer Chesson Headley was named to the United States' Palmer Cup Team. Freshman baseball star Derrick Dietrich earned a spot on the prestigious U.S. National Team. Softball standouts Jen Yee and Caitlin Lever were named to Canada's Olympic softball team. Famata Fofanah qualified for the Olympics in track, representing Guinea.

The 2006-07 year was highlighted by Tech's women's tennis team capturing the Institute's first-ever NCAA championship and its third straight Atlantic Coast Conference title. The football team won the ACC Coastal Division and went to its 10th straight bowl game, the men's basketball team earned its third NCAA Tournament bid in four years, the women's basketball team posted its finest season with 21 wins and a berth in the NCAA Tournament, and the golf team won a share of the ACC title for the second straight year.

Outside the competition venues, Radakovich has directed an overhaul of the annual giving and donation structure for Tech athletics, anchored by the new TECH Fund, which establishes minimum giving levels tied to season tickets in various seating areas of Bobby Dodd Stadium and Alexander Memorial Coliseum. Several facility upgrades have been completed, including the transformation of Tech's former football locker room on the ground floor of the Edge Athletic Center into a new Technology Center, which benefits academic support services for all Yellow Jacket student-athletes. 1983-85	Miami	Business Manager facility is scheduled for completion in early 2009.

Named Georgia Tech's Director of Athletics on February 22, 2006, Radakovich possesses nearly two decades of experience in collegiate athletics management positions. He came to Georgia Tech after five years as senior associate athletics director at LSU (2001-06), and he previously served as the Athletics Director at American University in 2000-01. That followed stints as associate athletics director at South Carolina (1994-2000) and Long Beach State (1989-94) as well as two years as the athletics business manager at Miami (1983-85).

Just the seventh Director of Athletics in Tech history, Radakovich was named by then Institute President Dr. Wayne Clough to succeed Dave Braine, who retired after nearly nine years in the post. Radakovich also follows in the footsteps of storied names such as John Heisman, Bobby Dodd and Homer Rice.

"Dan Radakovich brings a unique combination of enthusiasm for sports, concern for student athletes, experience in athletic administration, business experience and communication skills that are needed in today's complex world of intercollegiate athletics," said Dr. Clough.

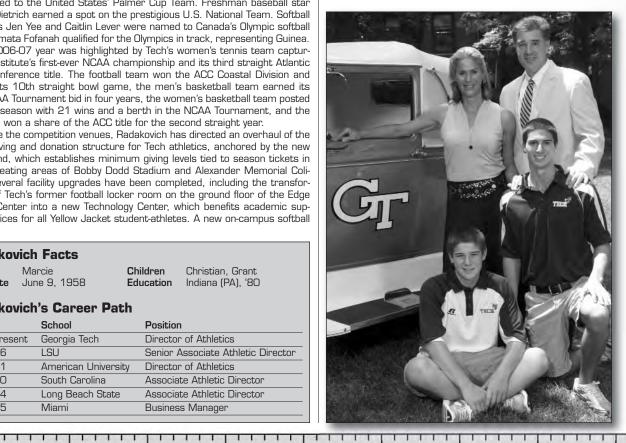

A graduate of Center High School near Aliquippa, Pa., and a member of its Alumni Hall of Fame, Radakovich, 50, became a football letterwinner and student coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, where he graduated in 1980 with a bachelor of science degree in finance. He was enshrined into the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame earlier this Radakovich added a master's degree in business administration from Miami in 1982. He also completed the Sports Management Institute's executive education program in 1992.

He is married to the former Marcie McDonald, and the couple has two children. Christian. 18. and Grant. 14. Christian is a freshman at Georgia

The 2007 Season In Review

11th Straight Bowl Berth, Choice's Rushing Title, Wins vs. Notre Dame, Clemson Highlight Year

Highlights Of The 2007 Season

- Georgia Tech overcame numerous injuries to post a 7-6 record its 11th consecutive winning season.
- The Yellow Jackets earned their 11th straight postseason bowl berth.
- After going 4-4 in ACC play, Tech finished .500 or better in league play for a conference-leading 13th consecutive season.
- Georgia Tech opened the season with a 30-point win at Notre Dame, beat 13th-ranked Clemson (13-3) and won in its final appearance in Orange Bowl Stadium with a win vs. Miami (17-14).
- Yellow Jacket senior punter Durant Brooks, who holds the highest career average in ACC history, won the Ray Guy Award.
- Georgia Tech had eight players named first- or second-team All-ACC more than any other ACC school. Brooks, senior kicker Travis Bell, senior running back Tashard Choice, junior guard Andrew Gardner and junior defensive tackle Vance Walker all earned first-team honors.
- Choice, who rushed for 1,310 yards in 2007, defended his title as the ACC rushing champion. Choice is the first player to lead the league in rushing for consecutive years since Virginia's Thomas Jones in 1998-99.
- Brooks was named first-team All-American by Rivals.com and Sl.com. Walker was a third-team selection by Rivals.com.

■ Four Yellow Jackets – Bell, Choice, Colin Peek and Kevin Tuminello – were named Academic All-ACC

- Five Tech players -- Brooks, Choice, Guyton, Darrell Robertson and Philip Wheeler – played in the Senior Bowl.
- Bell broke four school kicking records and extended his streak of made PATs to 138.
- Three Yellow Jackets were taken in the 2008 NFL Draft. Wheeler was taken in the third round by Indianapolis, Choice in the fourth round to Dallas and Brooks in the sixth round to Washington.

■ Every Georgia Tech loss came against teams that played in bowl games.

Tackles For Loss-Yards

Sept. 1, 2007 Georgia Tech 33, Notre Dame 3

Notre Dame Stadium • South Bend, Ind.

Georgia Tech didn't need a secret weapon. It had Tashard Choice. Choice rushed for 196 yards and two touchdowns and the Yellow Jacket defense had little trouble with any of Notre Dame's replacements for Brady Quinn in beating Notre Dame 33-3.

Fighting Irish coach Charlie Weis kept his choice of starting quarterback secret until game time, hoping that preparing for three quarterbacks would make it tough on Georgia Tech's defense.

It didn't work. In fact, it almost looked as if Georgia Tech knew what was coming.

The only score for Notre Dame came on a 24yard field goal by Brandon Walker in the third guarter. The Irish were held to minus-8 yards rushing.

Choice, the leading rusher in the ACC in 2006 with 1,473 yards, rushed for more than 100 yards for an eighth straight game, breaking the school record set by Eddie Lee Ivery in 1978. He scored on a 22-yard run on a direct snap and set up his other 7-yard TD - also on a direct snap with a 45-yard run.

The only disappointment for Georgia Tech was it was forced to settle for four field goals by Travis Bell, who had another one blocked. Jonathan Dwyer added a 7-yard TD run in the fourth guarter.

Sept. 8, 2007 GAME 2 Georgia Tech 69, Samford 14

Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta

Tashard Choice went over 100 yards rushing in the first quarter with a 73-yard touchdown run and No. 21 Georgia Tech scored its most points in a half since 1916, blowing out Samford 69-14.

It was the Yellow Jackets' highest scoring game and largest margin of victory since a 70-7 win at Navy on Sept. 8, 2001. Georgia Tech hadn't scored that many points in a home game since beating Furman 69-0 in 1921.

Choice did not play after rushing for 110 yards and two touchdowns in the first quarter.

Freshman Jonathan Dwyer added 138 yards rushing and three TDs on only nine carries. Taylor Bennett, Greg Smith and tailbacks Jamaal Evans and Jason Davis also had scoring runs for Tech.

Georgia Tech led 45-0 at halftime, its most points in any half since its record 222-0 win over Cumberland on Oct. 7, 1916. Tech set a modern school record with nine rushing touchdowns.

GAME 3 Sept. 15, 2007 Boston College 24, Georgia Tech 10

▶ Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta

Boston College's Matt Ryan threw for a careerbest 435 yards and the No. 21 Eagles shut down Georgia Tech star Tashard Choice in a 24-10 victory over the 15th-ranked Yellow Jackets.

Ryan was 30-of-44 in the third 400-yard passing game of his career, which included a 39-yard touchdown pass to Brandon Robinson. The senior surpassed his previous best from just two weeks earlier, a 408-yard effort against defending ACC champion Wake Forest.

L.V. Whitworth had a pair of TD runs for Boston College.

The Eagles piled up a 527 yards and allowed

Boston College proved that its stout run defense, ranked fourth nationally, was no fluke. The Eagles held Choice to just 31 yards on 15 carries, ending his streak of nine straight 100-yard games.

Choice had his best run late in the third quarter, breaking around left end for a 12-yard gain. Fittingly, the play was negated by a holding penalty, and Choice hobbled to the sideline with a hamstring injury. He did not return.

GAME 4 Sept. 22, 2007 Virginia 28, Georgia Tech 23

Scott Stadium • Charlottesville, Va.

Jameel Sewell threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to Staton Jobe one play after a muffed punt recovery in the fourth quarter, and Virginia rallied to beat Georgia Tech 28-23.

The Cavaliers also got 138 rushing yards from Cedric Peerman and several big plays from defensive end Chris Long as they won their third straight against ACC Coastal Division opponents.

Long batted several passes away, one turning into a 25-yard interception return, and sacked Taylor Bennett on fourth down late in the game.

The Yellow Jackets got one more chance after a punt by Virginia set them up at their own 35 with 1:51 left, but two holding penalties moved them back and four consecutive incomplete passes by Bennett finished off the Cavaliers' victory.

Tech lost its second in a row and for the eighth straight time at Scott Stadium. Its last win in Charlottesville came against No. 1 Virginia in 1990.

Sewell played possibly his best game, and made the biggest throw of the day in the biggest spot to get Virginia back in front.

GAME 5 Sept. 29, 2007 Georgia Tech 13, Clemson 3

▶ Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta

Georgia Tech stifled the dynamic running duo of James "Thunder" Davis and C.J. "Lightning" Spiller and took advantage of a stunningly poor performance by Dean Buchholz and the rest of Clemson's kicking game, upsetting the 13th-ranked Tigers 13-3.

The Yellow Jackets snapped a two-game losing streak and avoided their first O-3 start in league play since 1994.

The Tigers missed four field goals, had a punt blocked to set up the only touchdown and fumbled on a kickoff return, setting up a field goal that gave Georgia Tech a 10-point lead with 11 1/2 minutes remaining.

For good measure, Clemson had a touchdown called back because of a silly personal foul penalty, and gave Georgia Tech a do-over at the end zone with a pass interference penalty.

Buchholz, who had made 6-of-8 field goals in Clemson's first four games, booted a season-long 48 yarder just over a minute into the game. But it turned out to be a terrible homecoming for the junior from suburban Atlanta.

Tashard Choice, who had been bothered by a sore hamstring in both Georgia Tech losses, got back on track with 145 yards rushing. He scored from the 2 in the first quarter, which turned out to be all the points the Yellow Jackets would need.

GAME 6 Oct. 6, 2007 Maryland 28, Georgia Tech 26

In his first career start, Chris Turner threw for 255 yards, and Lance Ball ran for three touchdowns as Maryland barely held on for a 28-26 victory over Georgia Tech.

Travis Bell sent a 52-yard field goal attempt wide right with 54 seconds remaining. Andrew Gardner was whistled for holding on the previous play, knocking the Yellow Jackets back 10 yards and preventing them from lining up for what would have been a 40-yard try.

Turner had three passes of longer than 40 yards in the first half, including the first touchdown pass of his career, a 78-yard strike to Jason Goode.

Maryland had leads of 21-3 and 28-17, but Georgia Tech closed to 28-26 with 8:21 left in the game on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Taylor Bennett to Demariyus Thomas. The Jackets' two-point conversion try fell short.

Georgia Tech moved the ball consistently against the Terrapins, gaining 484 total yards and crossing midfield on every possession except its first.

GAME 7 Oct. 13, 2007 Georgia Tech 17, Miami 14

Orange Bowl Stadium • Miami, Fla.

Tashard Choice ran for a career-high 204 yards on 37 carries, quarterback Taylor Bennett rushed for two touchdowns and Georgia Tech controlled the second half to beat Miami 17-14.

Travis Bell's 39-yard field goal with 7:34 left was the eventual game-winner for Georgia Tech, which became the fourth team since 1978 to beat Miami in three consecutive seasons, joining Notre Dame, Virginia Tech and Florida State.

Shawnbrey McNeal had a 39-yard touchdown run on a fourth-down play for Miami, which came in allowing 111 rushing yards per game, but let Choice eclipse that by the midpoint of the third quarter.

The Yellow Jackets trailed 7-0 at halftime, and came out after intermission with a simple plan: Give Choice the ball. It worked.

Choice went 54 yards on Tech's opening drive of the second half, and the Yellow Jackets pulled into a 7-7 tie when Bennett curled to his left and made a 10-yard sprint for the score.

Miami went three-and-out on its next possession, and Tech rode Choice again, giving him the ball eight times on an eight-minute, 14-play, 77-yard grind capped by Bennett going in from 3 yards out

After Bell's field goal, the 'Canes went nowhere.

GAME 8 Oct. 20, 2007 Georgia Tech 34, Army 10

▶ Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta

Georgia Tech put together an impressive second half without Tashard Choice to beat Army. Rashaun Grant ran for 119 yards and a touchdown after Choice sustained a knee injury, and Georgia Tech beat the Black Knights 34-10.

Choice hurt his right knee on a 7-yard run late in the first quarter. The senior, in obvious pain, was helped off the field and then wheeled to the locker room. He did not return to the sideline.

Grant, also a senior, posted his first 100-yard game since his freshman season. He said the team received a halftime pep talk from Choice. Grant sat out the fourth quarter with an injury.

Freshman Jonathan Dwyer and sophomore Jamaal Evans also ran for second-half TDs for the Jackets, who had 510 total yards, including 292 on the ground. Army was held to 266 yards, only 106 in the second half.

Tech outscored the Black Knights 21-0 in the second half. It was a group effort.

Army quarterback Carson Williams was only 9of-23 passing for 124 yards with a touchdown and three interceptions.

GAME 9 Nov. 1, 2007 Virginia Tech 27, Georgia Tech 3

▶ Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta

Sean Glennon threw two long touchdown passes and ran for another score to lead Virginia Tech to a 27-3 win over Georgia Tech in an ESPN Thursday Night game at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

Glennon made his second straight start in place of freshman Tyrod Taylor, who was sidelined again by a sprained ankle. The replacement starter, who lost the job to Taylor after the second game, made the most of it by throwing for 296 yards, including a 40-yard touchdown pass to Justin Harper and a 71-yarder to Josh Morgan.

Glennon wore a replacement jersey provided by the Yellow Jackets when his own jersey couldn't be found. His name was written in magic marker on the back, and the home team's nickname was blacked out across the front of the white shirt, which was trimmed in black and gold instead of maroon and orange.

Maybe Taylor Bennett should have worn a Virginia Tech jersey. The Georgia Tech quarterback threw four interceptions, and even a 35-yard completion to James Johnson went awry when the Georgia Tech receiver was stripped of the ball and the Hokies recovered.

Freshman Josh Nesbitt also got a shot at quarterback for Tech.

Nov. 10. 2007 GAME 10 Georgia Tech 41, Duke 24

Tashard Choice picked up his sixth 100-yard game of the season, running for 170 yards and two touchdowns to lead Georgia Tech to a 41-24 victory over Duke.

Choice scored on runs of 1 and 16 yards despite playing with a sore hamstring. His performance put him over the career 3,000-yard mark.

Travis Bell kicked field goals of 40 and 33 yards in the first half for Georgia Tech.

Just two plays into the game, wide receiver Demaryius Thomas recovered a fumble in the end zone to give Georgia Tech a 7-0 lead.

But Duke tied it as Leon Wright returned a Tech fumble 24 yards for the score.

Duke led 10-7 on a 40-yard field goal by Nick Maggio midway through the first quarter, but the Jackets took the lead for good at 17-10 early in the second quarter on a 1-yard plunge by Bennett.

Bennett later hit wide receiver Correy Earls for a 38-yard score in the fourth quarter.

GAME 11 Nov. 17, 2007 Georgia Tech 27, North Carolina 25

▶ Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta

Travis Bell atoned for an earlier miss by kicking a 27-yard field goal with 15 seconds left as Georgia Tech overcame four lost fumbles to beat North Carolina 27-25.

The Tar Heels had taken advantage of quarterback Taylor Bennett's second fumble to go ahead 25-24 with 5:50 left. Bell missed a 33-yard attempt with 2:31 to go, but the Jackets stopped Carolina on three plays and got the ball back at their 50 after a 29-yard punt by Terrence Brown.

Tashard Choice, who had 33 carries for 142 yards, quickly moved Georgia Tech into field goal position. Bell made a 32-yard kick, but officials waved the play dead because North Carolina had 12 players on the field. After the penalty, Bell was good from 27 yards.

North Carolina's Connor Barth had a 63-yard field goal attempt partially blocked on the final play.

Greg Smith had six catches for 155 yards and two touchdowns for Georgia Tech.

Nov. 24, 2007 GAME 12 Georgia 31, Georgia Tech 17

▶ Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta

Matthew Stafford ran for one touchdown and threw for another, Thomas Brown rushed for 130 yards, and No. 6 Georgia seemed to catch every break in stretching its winning streak to seven in a row over Georgia Tech with a 31-17 victory.

Stafford caught Georgia Tech off guard by running for a 31-yard touchdown in the second quarter, one of four lead changes in the first half. The last of those came with 1:02 left in the second guarter, when Stafford hooked up with Mohamed Massaquoi on a 9-yard touchdown that sent the Bulldogs to the locker room up 16-14.

There would be no more lead changes. Brannan Southerland powered over from the 3 after Stafford threw 55 yards to Sean Bailey. Brown finished off the Yellow Jackets with a 32-yard run down the right sideline with just over 11 minutes

A 2-point conversion provided the final margin, the first time in four years the game wasn't decided in the closing minutes.

Tashard Choice led the Yellow Jackets with 134 yards, including a 12-yard touchdown.

GAME 13 Dec. 31, 2007 Fresno State 40, Georgia Tech 28

► HUMANITARIAN BOWL

▶ Bronco Stadium • Boise, Idaho

Clifton Smith rushed for 152 yards and two touchdowns, Tom Brandstater threw for a score and ran for another and Fresno State beat Georgia Tech 40-28 in the Humanitarian Bowl.

Fresno State scored 27 consecutive points after Tech jumped ahead 7-0, and rolled up 571 yards of total offense, the most allowed by the Yellow Jackets all season. Tech, which led the country in sacks with 47, never got to Brandstater.

Brandstater directed scoring drives of 82, 90 and 91 yards in the first half, and the Bulldogs scored 17 points in the second quarter, including 10 in the final 2 minutes.

Using young, skill-position backups trying to make an impression on new head coach Paul Johnson, the Yellow Jackets got within 34-28 early in the fourth quarter. Backup running back Jonathan Dwyer, rushed for 62 yards and had touchdown runs of 36 and 2 yards.

Georgia Tech 7 0 14 7 - 28 Fresno State 3 17 14 6 - 40

Tech has played an ESPN Thursday night game every year since 1993.

Tech On Thursday Night

For the 16th year in a row, Georgia Tech will be featured in ESPN's Thursday night, national television package when the Yellow Jackets host Miami at Bobby Dodd Stadium on November 20th.

The Yellow Jackets have made 20 appearances since 1991, more than any other school in the nation. Tech has a 9-11 record when playing in ESPN's Thursday night games, and all but five of the games have been in Atlanta.

Tech 222, Cumberland O

MOST LOPSIDED GAME EVER CAME IN ATLANTA IN 1916

The most lopsided game of all time actually happened in Atlanta on Oct. 7, 1916. The previous spring, Cumberland's baseball team had trounced Tech, 22-O. Cumberland University was located in Lebanon, Tenn., and the Cumberland squad was actually comprised of professional players from nearby Nashville. Georgia Tech head coach John Heisman was not amused, and the Tech students and alumni howled for revenge, so Heisman offered the Bulldogs a $500 guarantee to come to Atlanta for a football game.

In the game, Tech scored 32 touchdowns, averaged 3.8 points per minute, carried the ball for 978 yards, and never threw a pass. Cumberland, since it was losing yardage faster than it was gaining real estate, began to kick the football back to the Jackets immediately after Tech kicked off to them.

Amazingly, neither team made a first down in the game because Tech scored within four downs on every possession. All-America Everett Strupper led Tech with six touchdowns.

Wrong Way Riegels

THE MOST STUNNING PLAY IN ROSE BOWL HISTORY

The most stunning single play in the history of the Rose Bowl propelled Georgia Tech to its first bowl victory when Roy Riegels' infamous Wrong Way Run turned out right as the Rambling Wreck beat California, 8-7, in the 1929 Rose Bowl.

Early in the second quarter, with the score tied O-O, Tech halfback Stumpy Thomason was hit by the Golden Bears' Benny Lom. He fumbled around the Tech 35-yard line, and Riegels scooped up the bouncing ball. For Riegels, a center and captain of his Golden Bear team, fate had sent him running free and clear. He got a good block from a teammate, slipped off a tackler and spun around. But something was wrong.

"Stop, Roy! You're running the wrong way," yelled Lom. Riegels thought the speedier Lom was asking for a lateral. At the 10-yard line, Lom grabbed Riegels, but Riegels shook him loose. Finally, at the one-yard line, Lom pulled Riegels down, but not before a 64-yard run into immortality.

California still had the ball. On the first play, the Golden Bears attempted to punt the ball out of the end zone with Riegels snapping to Lom. However, the left side of the California line collapsed and Tech's Vance Maree blocked the punt, which rolled out of bounds for a safety.

Those two points turned out to be the winning points as both teams traded touchdowns in the second half, and the Rambling Wreck eventually prevailed, 8-7, in one of the strangest games ever played. Tech's Rose Bowl win capped a perfect 10-O season, the first undefeated season for head coach William Alexander, and the Rambling Wreck captured its second national title.

NCAA Rushing Record

EDDIE LEE IVERY'S 356 YARDS SETS NCAA RUSHING RECORD

On a day (Nov. 11, 1978) when ice skates would have been more appropriate footwear than cleated shoes and when an agitated stomach threatened his very presence in Georgia Tech's lineup, tailback Eddie Lee Ivery made college football history.

On 26 rushes, Eddie Lee Ivery gained 356 yards, more yards in a single game than any other major college back ever, on a field that required de-snowing by a street sweeper twice before the game. In fact, the field was made even more treacherous by 20-degree temperatures augmented by a 20 mph wind (making the chill factor zero degrees) which turned the Falcon Stadium turf into a frozen tundra.

Complicating Ivery's plight was his stomach. After a nifty reversal of direction, which resulted in a 73-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter giving Tech a 14-0 advantage, Ivery could be seen on the sidelines doubled over at the waist, vomiting and in obvious pain.

At halftime, Ivery had 122 yards on 12 carries, but his status for the second half was very much in doubt.

An 80-yard touchdown run with 6:08 left in the third quarter gave Ivery 240 yards and broke Brent Cunningham's school record of 217 yards set in 1970 against Clemson.

With 10:25 left in the game, Ivery scored on a 57-yard run, giving him 309 yards. Besides giving Tech a 35-21 lead against a team that obviously was not going to surrender without a fight, it put Ivery within 41 yards of the NCAA single game record of 350 yards set by Michigan State's Eric Allen against Purdue in 1971.

When an Air Force drive fizzled at Tech's eight-yard line on an incomplete pass, Rodgers told the team he'd let Ivery run the ball until he got the record. Ivery crashed over right tackle for 13 yards, leaving him just 28 yards short of the record. A run around right end gained another 13. Only 15 to go. Adding to the drama, Ivery's stomach began to churn again at that point, to the extent he had to leave the game.

His replacement, Ray Friday, shocked everyone by bolting 66 yards straight up the middle for his second touchdown of the day.

More than six minutes remained when Tech kicked off to Air Force with a 42-21 lead, plenty of time to retrieve the ball and let Ivery get the record.

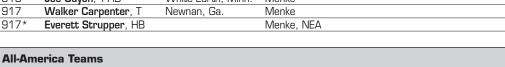

The chance came when linebacker Henry Johnson intercepted a pass at the Air Force 41-yard line.

Ivery trotted back onto the field and rushed 21 yards with his first carry, giving him the record.

Retired Jersey #19

Clint Castleberry, RB

Lettered 1942, Killed in World War II

The only retired jersey in Georgia Tech's storied football history is the No. 19 worn by running back Clint Castleberry in 1942. Though just a freshman, he finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting as he led Tech to a 9-2 record, highlighted by historic victories at Notre Dame and Navy and capped by a berth in the Cotton Bowl. Just weeks later, he enlisted in the U.S. Army, and on Nov. 7, 1944, his plane disappeared.

For one fleeting season in 1942, Clint Castleberry blazed across the football field like a 'crazed jackrabbit.' Some said he could have been the greatest Tech player in history, if it weren't for World War II and a plane that disappeared off the West African coast without a trace.

He flashed across the fields at Notre Dame and Navy that fall of '42, leading Georgia Tech's shocking onslaughts, while Sir Bernard Montgomery flashed across North Africa in pursuit of Erwin Rommel, and the Russians made their goalline stand at Stalingrad.

He had played only one college football game when Notre Dame scout Wayne Millner warned coach Frank Leahy that "the most dangerous runner in America" would invade South Bend.

As a freshman, he finished third in the Heisman Trophy balloting.

And then he was gone.

CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame

Wade Mitchell

Inducted in 1996

The Verizon Academic All-America Hall of Fame recognizes former Academic All-America student-athletes who graduated at least 10 years ago and have gone on to great success after athletics. Wade Mitchell became the first Georgia Tech graduate to be inducted in 1996. An Academic All-America in 1955, the former standout quarterback and safety went on to become a prominent Atlanta banking executive.

BOBBY DODD

Georgia Tech Head Coach 1945-1966

Georgia Tech's legendary coach was inducted posthumously into the College Football Hall of Fame in December of 1993. Also in the Hall of Fame for his playing career at Tennessee, Dodd and Amos Alonzo Stagg are the only inductees enshrined as both player and coach.

Paul Johnson is the 12th full-time football coach in Georgia Tech history. Prior to 1904, when John Heisman became the school's first permanent head coach, the team was "coached" by professors, interested townspeople or one of the players.

Professor Ernest E. West, a Naval College graduate, directed Tech's first football team in 1892. In 1893 and '94, the squad was coached by volunteers Frank O. Spain, a Mathematics professor, and Lt. Leonard Wood (who later became famous as the colonel in command of Roosevelt's Rough Riders and as Governor General of Cuba), then stationed at Ft. McPherson in Atlanta. The rules were rather lax in those days, so Spain and Wood also played on the team.

The next volunteer coach of record was R.B. "Cow" Nalley in 1898, "Mr. Collier" in 1899, Dr. Cyrus W. Strickler in 1901, and John McKee in 1902.

1929 ROSE BOWL

Georgia Tech 8, California 7

The Golden Tornado of Georgia Tech completed a perfect 10-0 season by stunning California, 8-7, in one of the strangest Rose Bowl games ever played.

The margin of victory for Tech was provided in the second quarter. With the score tied O-O, Tech's Stumpy Thomason was hit by the Golden Bears' Benny Lom and fumbled around the Tech 35-yard line. California center Roy Riegels scooped up the ball and raced for the end zone. But in the confusion, Riegels got turned around and was heading toward the wrong end zone. He ran 64 yards, reaching the California one-yard line before he was tackled by his own teammate, Lom. On the next play, Tech's Vance Maree broke through the line and blocked Lom's punt for a safety.

Thomason scored on a 15-yard run early in the third quarter but his extra-point try was no good. Still, Tech led 8-0. California added a late score on Lom's 10-yard touchdown pass.

1940 ORANGE BOWL

Georgia Tech 21, Missouri 7

Jan. 2, 1940 • Burdine Stadium • Miami, Fla.

The Yellow Jackets made their first of five trips to the Orange Bowl a successful one, defeating Big Six champion Missouri, 21-7, behind the heroics of 147pound Johnny Bosch, who outran and outpassed the Tigers' all-America Paul Christman.

After Christman scored for the Tigers, Howard Ector's one-yard touchdown plunge completed Tech's 63-yard drive to knot the score at 7-7.

Rob Ison raced 59 yards for a second-quarter Tech touchdown to give the Jackets the lead for good. In the third quarter, Tech fumbled at the Missouri one-yard line but forced the Tigers to punt. Bosch returned the punt 14 yards to the 34, and Early Wheby raced 34 yards for the score.

Missouri drove once to the Jackets' one-yard line in the fourth quarter, but Tech held and finished its season with an 8-2 record and a No. 16 national ranking by the Associated Press.

1943 COTTON BOWL

Texas 14, Georgia Tech 7

▶ Jan. 1, 1943 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas

A gallant comeback effort fell three yards short for the Yellow Jackets as Texas held on to win the Cotton Bowl, 14-7, marking Georgia Tech's first loss in three bowl appearances.

The Longhorns took a 14-O advantage into the fourth quarter, with the help of a 6O-yard punt return, when Tech began to make its move. Davey Eldredge scored for the Jackets on a fourth-down Statue of Liberty play, and Tech drove to the Texas 3-yard line in the closing seconds, but threw three incomplete passes. Tech completed the season ranked fifth in the nation by the Associated Press with a 9-2 record.

1944 SUGAR BOWL

Georgia Tech 20, Tulsa 18

The 13th-ranked Yellow Jackets made their first trip to the Sugar Bowl a memorable one by overcoming an 18-7 Tulsa lead in the second half to complete an 8-3 season. The Golden Hurricane used a fake field goal and a 75-yard run to open its lead.

Tech, which shut out the Hurricane in the second half, was led by the brilliant play of all-SEC halfback Eddie Prokop, who ran for 199 yards, threw a touchdown pass to all-America Phil Tinsley and booted two extra points. The Jackets' winning score came on a one-yard plunge by Ed Scharfschwerdt with less than seven minutes remaining.

1945 ORANGE BOWL

Tulsa 26, Georgia Tech 12

Jan. 1, 1945 • Orange Bowl • Miami, Fla.

For the second straight year, Tech faced Tulsa in a bowl game, but this time the Golden Hurricane turned the tables, avenging a Sugar Bowl loss to the Yellow Jackets the year before.

Quarterback Frank Broyles' 304-yard passing attack was not enough for Tech as Tulsa limited the 13th-ranked Jackets' ground game to 43 yards. Tulsa opened a 20-0 lead behind Ed Shedlosky's two touchdowns and held on to win. The Jackets scored on a 51-yard pass from Broyles to Johnny McIntosh and a two-yard run by Rumsey Taylor to complete an 8-3 season.

1947 OIL BOWL

Georgia Tech 41, St. Mary's 19

▶ Jan. 1, 1947 • Rice Stadium • Houston, Texas

Georgia Tech added another bowl title to its collection by polishing off the St. Mary's Galloping Gaels in the third annual Oil Bowl. Tech opened a 27-7 lead at the half and cruised to the victory.

Tech's relentless defense picked off eight St. Mary's passes in the rain and mud of Rice Field, including one which W.P. McHugh returned 73 yards for a touchdown. All-America end George Brodnax caught two TD passes to lead the Tech scoring.

The Rambling Wreck finished with a 9-2 record and ranked 11th by the Associated Press.

1948 ORANGE BOWL

Georgia Tech 20, Kansas 14

Georgia Tech broke out to a 20-7 lead, then hung on for dear life to beat Kansas, 20-14, in the Jackets' third Orange Bowl appearance of the 1940s. The Jayhawks were inches from a game-tying touchdown when Lynne McNutt fumbled a quarterback sneak and Tech's Rollo Phillips recovered in the closing minutes.

Tech quarterback Jim Still threw two touchdown passes to Jim Patton and one to Billy Queen, and finished the day with 129 yards passing. Georgia Tech completed the season 10-1, having lost only to Ala-

Jan. 1, 1952 • Orange Bowl • Miami, Fla.

Georgia Tech made its first bowl appearance in four years and capped an 11-0-1 season by edging Baylor, 17-14, in the Orange Bowl. The Yellow Jackets, ranked fifth by Associated Press and United Press, broke a 14-14 deadlock in the fourth period on Pepper Rodgers' six-yard field goal for the victory.

The game slipped away from the Bears despite piling up 299 yards and 17 first downs to only 191 yards and nine first downs for the Jackets.

Tech came back twice in the game, the first time on Leon Hardeman's three-yard run which tied the score, 7-7, in the first quarter. Quarterback Darrell Crawford threw a touchdown pass to Buck Martin with six minutes left in the fourth to knot the game at 14-14

The Jackets' defense shut out the Bears in the second half and intercepted All-America quarterback Larry Isbell three times.

1953 SUGAR BOWL

Georgia Tech 24, Mississippi 7

Georgia Tech (12-0) extended its unbeaten streak to 26 games and was named national champion by International News Service after beating Mississippi, 24-7, in its first Sugar Bowl appearance since 1944.

The Tech defense, which had given up fewer than five points a game during the season, allowed the Rebels to score on their first possession for a 7-0 lead, but shut them out the rest of the way behind the play of George Morris and Sam Hensley.

Quarterback Pepper Rodgers was the hero for the second straight year with a touchdown pass and a field goal to lead the Jackets, while Bill Brigman and Leon Hardeman each rushed for touchdowns.

Jan. 1, 1954 • Tulane Stadium • New Orleans, La.

Georgia Tech, playing in a major bowl game for the third consecutive year, unleashed a record-breaking aerial attack to down the Mountaineers. The Jackets, 9-2 and ranked eighth by the Associated Press, set Sugar Bowl records for pass attempts (35), completions (20) and passing yards (268), and rolled up 438 yards in total offense.

Pepper Rodgers, always at his best in bowl games, accounted for 23 points with his kicking and passing. He completed 16 of 26 passes for 195 yards, threw three TD passes and kicked one field goal and two extra points.

Sam Hensley led the Tech receivers with four catches for 76 yards and one touchdown, Dave Davis had four catches for 43 yards, and Henry Hair caught three passes for 29 yards and one score.

1955 COTTON BOWL

Georgia Tech 14, Arkansas 6

Jan. 1, 1955 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas

Appearing in a major bowl for the fourth straight year, Georgia Tech completed a rare "grand slam" by winning the Cotton Bowl, 14-6, over Arkansas. The win gave the Yellow Jackets a victory in each of the four major bowls.

The Jackets had to come from behind as they so often had done in the past, with Paul Rotenberry providing the touchdown that tied the game. His fouryard run in the third quarter and Wade Mitchell's PAT put Tech ahead 7-6. Mitchell scored the final points with a one-yard plunge and added the point after with seven minutes to play.

Tech amassed 285 yards on the ground, led by George Humphreys, who picked up 99 yards on 19 carries, and Jimmy Thompson, who gained 63 yards on 12 tries.

Jan. 2, 1956 • Tulane Stadium • New Orleans, La.

Georgia Tech won its fifth consecutive major bowl game in five seasons and ran its record to 4-0 in the Sugar Bowl with a 7-O shutout of Pittsburgh. The seventh-ranked Jackets completed a 9-1-1 season.

Tech quarterback Wade Mitchell sneaked over from the one-yard line early in the game for the only score, taking advantage of a Panther fumble at the Pitt 32-yard line. The Jackets netted all of their offense—142 yards—on the ground, led by Ken Owen (29 yards), Dickie Mattison (27 yards) and Paul Rotenberry (25).

All-SEC guard Franklin Brooks was named the game's outstanding player, leading a brilliant Tech defensive effort which allowed Pitt 313 yards in offense but no scores. The Panthers mounted only two threats, driving to the one-yard line late in the first half and to the five as the final gun sounded.

1956 GATOR BOWL

Georgia Tech 21, Pittsburgh 14 ▶ Dec. 29, 1956 • Gator Bowl • Jacksonville, Fla.

Georgia Tech (10-1) and Pittsburgh met in bowl competition for the second time in less than a year, and the fourth-ranked Yellow Jackets won their sixth consecutive bowl game in six seasons, a record that would stand for the next 17 years.

The decisive score came after Pittsburgh fumbled the second half kickoff and Tech's Wesley Gibbs recovered. That set up a 37-yard drive, capped by Paul Rotenberry's five-yard touchdown run to give Tech a 21-7 lead

In the second half, Pitt never drove past the Jackets' 32-yard line, which it reached at the closing gun. The Panthers collected 313 yards in total offense but were hurt by two fumbles and two interceptions.

Ken Owen scored the first Tech touchdown on a two-vard dive with 8:39 left in the opening period. George Volkert took a pitchout from quarterback Toppy Vann and hit Jerry Nabors for the second score with 2:02 left in the half. Stan Flowers led the Tech ground attack with 63 yards on just four carries, setting up the Jackets' second TD with a 34vard iaunt.

Tech's Wade Mitchell was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

1965 GATOR BOWL

Georgia Tech 31, Texas Tech 21

Georgia Tech went to its fourth bowl game in six years and evened its Gator Bowl record at 2-2 by downing Texas Tech, 31-21, sparked by quarterback Jerry Priestley.

Priestley, a senior, completed only one pass and rushed only five times for 12 yards, but his one-yard keeper for a touchdown put the Yellow Jackets ahead to stay, 24-21, with 13:07 left in the game.

Halfback Lenny Snow rushed for 136 yards on 33 carries, then a Tech and Gator Bowl record, and scored a touchdown to earn Most Valuable Player honors. Tech collected 364 yards rushing, and the Jackets also set Gator Bowl marks for rushing attempts (79) and first downs rushing (23).

Texas Tech quarterback Tom Wilson completed 22 of 40 passes for 283 yards, but the Jackets held on by recovering three fumbles and intercepting two passes.

1967 ORANGE BOWL

Florida 27, Georgia Tech 12

Georgia Tech's fifth appearance in the Orange Bowl was its last game under legendary head coach Bobby Dodd, as the eighth-ranked Yellow Jackets fell to Florida, 27-12

Tech trailed just 7-6 late in the third quarter and was threatening when quarterback Kim King was intercepted. Florida's Larry Smith raced 94 yards on the ensuing drive for the back-breaking touchdown. Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier quarterbacked the Gators.

Lenny Snow starred for Tech, rushing for 110 yards and hauling in a 52-yard pass reception. Tech finished its final season under Dodd with a 9-2 record.

1970 SUN BOWL

Georgia Tech 17, Texas Tech 9

▶ Dec. 19, 1970 • El Paso, Texas

Georgia Tech met Texas Tech in a bowl game for the second time and again defeated the Red Raiders, 17-9, buoyed by an outstanding defensive effort which shut out Texas Tech in the first half.

The 13th-ranked Yellow Jackets built a 10-0 halftime lead behind a two-yard touchdown plunge by Rob Healy and a 21-yard field goal by Jack Moore. Texas Tech closed the gap to 10-9 in the third quarter with the help of a blocked punt safety.

The Red Raiders missed a 24-vard field goal which would have given them the lead in the fourth quarter, and Bill Flowers recovered a Texas Tech fumble at the Raiders' 25-yard line to set up the clinching touchdown. Third-string tailback Kevin McNamara bulled in from two yards out for the score.

Quarterback Jack Williams completed 11 of 14 passes for 123 yards, and Healy led Tech rushers with 59 yards in a balanced attack.

Mississippi coasted to a 41-18 win after building a 38-6 halftime lead in the Yellow Jackets' first Peach Bowl appearance.

Despite near equality in total offense (317 for Tech to 318 for Ole Miss), the Jackets suffered from five turnovers, including two interceptions by quarterback Eddie McAshan. Rob Healy scored all three Tech touchdowns on short runs but totalled just 27 yards on 17 carries.

1972 LIBERTY BOWL

Georgia Tech 31, Iowa State 30

Backup guarterback Jim Stevens completed 12 of 15 passes for 157 yards and three touchdowns and was named the game's Most Valuable Player as Georgia Tech won a thriller over Iowa State in its only Liberty Bowl.

Stevens was nearly the goat, however, when the Cyclones recovered his errant pitch and drove 33 yards for a touchdown with 1:36 left in the game. But Iowa State quarterback George Amundson threw a two-point conversion pass away under pressure and left his team trailing by a point. Tech's Mark Fields recovered the ensuing onsides kick to seal the win.

Tech, ranked 20th, struck first after recovering a fumble to set up a 32-yard field goal by Cam Bonifay. But the Cyclones then scored twice for a 14-3 lead after one quarter. Tech rallied on Stevens' nine-yard touchdown pass to Jimmy Robinson and Gary Faulkner's 19-yard interception return to trail at the half, 21-17.

Stevens passed 22 yards to Rob Healy for a touchdown in the third quarter to give the Jackets' the lead again, 24-21, then hit Kevin McNamara for a score in the fourth period for Tech's final points.

With record-breaking tailback Eddie Lee Ivery sidelined with an ankle injury, Georgia Tech fell to Purdue, 41-21, in its second Peach Bowl appearance.

The Jackets managed just 12 yards rushing and had to rely on quarterback Mike Kelley, who completed 17 of 38 passes for 168 yards, including touchdown passes to tight end George Moore and wide receiver Drew Hill.

Purdue led 34-7 at the half behind quarterback Mark Herrmann, who passed for 166 yards and two scores

1985 ALL-AMERICAN BOWL Georgia Tech 17, Michigan State 14

Reserve quarterback Todd Rampley, sophomore tailback Malcolm King and a stingy Georgia Tech defense made this a New Year's Eve to remember as the Rambling Wreck scored a 17-14 come-frombehind victory over Michigan State and its outstanding tailback Lorenzo White.

King ran for 122 yards on 16 carries, including the decisive touchdown with just 1:50 left in the game to complete the comeback. King's five-yard burst capped his best game of the season, and his 56-yard jaunt in the second quarter set up Tech's other touchdown, a one-yard sneak by Rampley.

Rampley, a sophomore replacing starter John Dewberry, completed 12 of 23 passes in his first college start, while David Bell connected on a 40-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.

Tech's defense allowed White, the nation's leading rusher, his due with 158 yards but limited the rest of the Spartans to just 75 total yards.

The victory gave Tech a 9-2-1 record, its best since the Bobby Dodd Era, and gave the Rambling Wreck a No. 18 ranking in the final national poll.

1991 FLORIDA CITRUS BOWL Georgia Tech 45, Nebraska 21

MS-Ingram 3-70, 2 TD; Rison 1-18

Jan. 1, 1991 • Citrus Bowl • Orlando, Fla.

Underdog Georgia Tech clinched the UPI national championship with a dominating 45-21 win over 13th-ranked Nebraska in Orlando, Fla., on New Year's Day as MVP Shawn Jones collected 318 yards of total offense and running back William Bell gained 127 yards on the ground. Tech completed a storybook season as the nation's only undefeated team with an 11-0-1 record.

"This is the greatest team I've ever coached," said national Coach of the Year Bobby Ross. "To me, they'll always be national champions."

Jones, who threw for a career-high 277 yards and two touchdowns, directed Tech to a 21-O lead with scoring tosses to Bell and Emmett Merchant in the second quarter. A Scott Sisson 37-yard field goal gave the Jackets a 24-14 halftime lead.

Nebraska threatened on its first possession of the second half, but Keith Holmes blocked a field goal attempt which led to a one-yard touchdown run by Jones. Bell added two touchdown runs, including a brilliant 57-yard jaunt. The 45 points was the most ever scored by Tech in a bowl game.

Strong safety Thomas Balkcom was voted the defensive MVP with two sacks. Also contributing to the outstanding defensive effort were linebackers Calvin Tiggle and Marlon Williams and cornerback Willie Clay.

1991 ALOHA BOWL

Georgia Tech 18, Stanford 17

▶ Dec. 25, 1991 • Aloha Stadium • Honolulu, Hawaii

Jimy Lincoln's two-point conversion run with just 14 seconds remaining in the game provided Georgia Tech with an 18-17 come-from-behind victory over Stanford, making the final game of the Bobby Ross era a success at the Jeep Eagle Aloha Bowl in Honolulu.

Willie Clay's 63-yard punt return set up Tech's game-winning 31-yard, seven play drive which was capped by a one-yard touchdown run by quarterback Shawn Jones with 14 seconds remaining. Disdaining the game-tying kick, Jones optioned to his right, pitching the ball to Lincoln, who cut back inside and dove across the goal for the game-winning points.

The win was Tech's third straight bowl victory and the final contest at Tech for Ross, who on Jan. 2 accepted the head coaching position with the San Diego Chargers of the NFL.

Stanford, ranked 17th, jumped to an early 7-O lead on a six-yard touchdown run by fullback Tommy Vardell.

The Jackets responded on their first possession, driving 60 yards in 10 plays for the tying score, a two-yard touchdown from Jones to tailback Michael Smith with 9:02 remaining in the first quarter.

Tech broke on top on the final play of the opening stanza when a Scott Sisson 24-yard field goal capped a 74-yard, 11-play drive, all on the ground.

Stanford evened the game at 10-all with a 38-yard field goal by Aaron Mills midway through the second quarter. Then Vardell, who rushed for 104 yards on 21 carries, put the Cardinal on top, 17-10, with a two-yard TD run with 5:50 to play in the first half.

In a scoreless third quarter, Tech saw a potential scoring threat thwarted on the final play of the quarter when freshman fullback Rodney Wilkerson fumbled at the Cardinal one. Tech managed just three first downs in the second half until the game-winning drive

1997 CARQUEST BOWL Georgia Tech 35, West Virginia 30

Dec. 29, 1997 • Pro Player Stadium • Miami, Fla.

Sophomore quarterback Joe Hamilton ran and passed for 356 yards and three touchdowns to lead Georgia Tech to a 35-30 victory over West Virginia in the 1997 Carquest Bowl at Pro Player Stadium in Miami, Fla.

Hamilton was named the game's MVP after completing 19 of 36 passes for 274 yards and a touchdown while rushing for 82 yards on 14 carries, including scoring runs of nine and 30 yards.

Tech, which piled up 484 total yards, built a 28-14 halftime advantage, then withstood a West Virginia comeback in the second half to claim its fourth straight bowl victory.

The Jackets held Amos Zereoue, the nation's third-leading rusher, to just 84 yards, 66 below his average.

Tech took the opening kickoff and drove 80 yards in 15 plays. On fourth and goal, freshman fullback Ed Wilder scored from one yard out for a 7-0 advantage.

The Mountaineers needed little time to answer, covering 61 yards in just six plays. Quarterback Marc Bulger, who was 25-of-40 for 353 yards, completed three passes and Zereoue scored from 14 yards to knot the score at 7-all.

The Jackets came right back on their next possession, driving 76 yards in seven plays. Hamilton then covered the final 30 yards for the score on a quarterback draw, giving Tech a 14-7 lead it would not relinquish.

Hamilton engineered a 94-yard, 12-play drive, capped by a three-yard touchdown pass to tight end Mike Lillie as Tech opened a 21-7 advantage.

Bulger connected with wide receiver Jerry Porter for a 21-yard touchdown pass to bring the Mountaineers within 21-14 with 4:45 to play before intermission

The Jackets quickly marched 74 yards in 11 plays with Hamilton scoring on a nine-yard run with just 27 seconds on the clock to carry a 28-14 lead into half-time.

West Virginia began its comeback in the third quarter.

Zereoue scored from 19 yards out on a Statue of Liberty play with 9:26 remaining in the third quarter to trim Tech's lead to 28-21. Late in the quarter, West Virginia drove 93 yards, only to stall at the Tech three. Jay Taylor's 21-yard field goal with 42 seconds in the quarter made the score 28-24.

Tech regained control in the fourth quarter as Hamilton led a 66-yard, seven-play drive, capped by a five-yard touchdown run by tailback Charles Wiley with 4:44 left in the game for a 35-24 lead.

But West Virginia needed just 55 seconds to answer as Bulger completed a short pass to Porter who sped 74 yards for a touchdown with 3:49 to play. The Mountaineers elected to go for the two-point conversion, but the pass failed, leaving Tech with a 35-30 advantage.

1999 TOYOTA GATOR BOWL Georgia Tech 35, Notre Dame 28

Jan. 1, 1999 • Alltel Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

Quarterback Joe Hamilton threw three touchdown passes and caught another one and split end Dez White hauled in two long scoring passes to lift 11th-ranked Georgia Tech to a 35-28 victory over No. 17 Notre Dame in the 1999 Toyota Gator Bowl.

The win, before 70,791 fans at Alltel Stadium, gave the Yellow Jackets their first 10-win season since the 1990 national title and just their second since 1956.

White and Hamilton shared the Most Valuable Player honors after hooking up for the game-winning score on a 55-yard pass with 7:55 to play. That pass capped a nine-play, 91-yard scoring drive after Notre Dame had roared back from a 21-7 halftime deficit to tie the score early in the fourth quarter.

Notre Dame dressed in green jerseys for the first time since 1995, but the Jackets jumped in front early. On Tech's second possession, Hamilton led a 12-play, 87-yard drive and found himself on the receiving end of a five-yard touchdown pass. He pitched to freshman tailback Joe Burns on a sweep and Burns threw back across the field and found Hamilton alone in the end zone, and the Jackets led 7-0 with Tech celebrated a Gator Bowl win over Notre Dame.

6:22 left in the first quarter.

Notre Dame answered with a nine-yard TD run by Denson, who rushed for 130 yards on the day.

Tech dominated the remainder of the first half.

First the Jackets ate up 5:20 with a 10-play, 78-yard drive. Phillip Rogers capped the drive with a two-yard dive, giving Tech a 14-7 lead.

Then Hamilton drove the Jackets 84 yards on 10 plays. On second-and-five from the Irish nine, Hamilton hit senior Mike Sheridan for the score and a 21-7 lead with 4:26 left in the half.

Notre Dame took the second half kickoff and drove 80 yards. Denson scored on a one-yard run to cut Tech's lead to 21-14 with 10:47 left in the third.

Fullback Virgil Johnson fielded the short kickoff and rambled nine yards before fumbling, and Tony Driver recovered for Notre Dame at the Tech 26-yard line. The Irish used eight plays to cover the 26 yards as Jackson scored from two yards out.

Kofi Smith raced around the right end to block Sanson's extra point, but at 7:23 of the third quarter, Notre Dame had pulled within 21-20.

The Jackets took over and faced third-and-10 when Hamilton hit White for a 44-yard touchdown. Tech had a 28-20 advantage with 3:42 to play in the third quarter.

But Notre Dame continued to run the ball on Tech's defense. Jackson hit Jay Johnson for 27 yards and a first down at the Tech 28.

Three plays later, Tech appeared to have the Irish stopped, but a controversial personal foul penalty gave Notre Dame a first down at the 13. Denson covered the final 13 yards on three plays, the last a one-yard scoring run. After Jackson hit Brown for the two-point conversion, the score was tied at 28 with 11:56 to play.

On first down at the Tech 45, Hamilton found White open over the middle, and the speedy sophomore raced to a 55-yard touchdown. Tech was back in front, 35-28, with 7:55 left in the game.

Notre Dame had three possessions in the final 7:55 but netted minus-11 yards. On the Irish's final play, Tech's Jesse Tarplin recovered at the Irish10-yard line with 49 seconds left to seal the win.

2000 TOYOTA GATOR BOWL Miami 28, Georgia Tech 13

Freshman tailback Clinton Portis ran for 117 yards on 12 carries, including a 73-yard touchdown run in the second quarter, and junior tailback James Jackson added 107 yards on 21 carries to lead Miami to a 28-13 victory over 16th-ranked Georgia Tech in the 55th Annual Toyota Gator Bowl at Alltel Stadium.

Tech's All-America quarterback Joe Hamilton was harried by the Hurricanes' pass rush and managed to complete 20 of 40 passes for 245 yards but threw two interceptions.

Miami took the opening kickoff and drove 66 yards in seven plays for the game's first score. Jackson had an eight-yard burst around left end for the score and a 7-0 lead with 12:23 left in the opening quarter.

Tech's defense twice held the Hurricanes in Yellow Jacket territory following an interception and a blocked punt. Tech drove 52 yards on seven plays before stalling at the Miami 27, and placekicker Luke Manget missed a 44-yard field goal attempt.

Miami quickly moved 73 yards as quarterback Kenny Kelly hit Andre King for a 15-yard TD pass on the first play of the second quarter for a 14-0 lead.

The Jackets finally got on the scoreboard late in the second quarter with a 77-yard, 10-play drive. Hamilton scored the touchdown on a 17-yard option run to cut the lead to 14-7 with 4:12 left in the half.

Just two plays later, Portis broke two tackles at the line and then outran Tech defenders to the end zone for a 73-yard score that gave the 'Canes a 21-7 lead.

Tech took the opening kickoff of the second half and moved 69 yards but settled for Manget's 25-yard field goal that pulled the Jackets within 21-10.

The Jackets then moved to the Miami 24, but Manget's field goal attempt was blocked. Tech, though, got the ball back in just two plays as Jamara Clark intercepted a Kenny Kelly pass at the Miami 44. After Tech advanced to the Miami 19, Manget booted a 36-yard field goal to cut the score to 21-13.

Miami reasserted itself early in the fourth quarter as backup quarterback Ken Dorsey threw a 17-yard touchdown to split end Reggie Wayne with 9:18 to play for the final 28-13 margin.

The Jackets, who saw their five-game bowl winning streak snapped, threatened twice in the game's waning moments.

Miami's defense, which held Tech to its lowest point total in 16 games, sacked Hamilton three times and held the Heisman Trophy runner-up without a TD pass for the first time in 14 games.

2000 CHICK-FIL-A PEACH BOWL LSU 28, Georgia Tech 14

Rohan Davey, taking over at quarterback in the second half, threw three touchdown passes to lead LSU to a 28-14 upset of No. 15 Georgia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Quarterback George Godsey and the Tech offense struggled, committing six turnovers on four fumbles and two interceptions. Still, Tech finished with a 9-3 record in what many had expected to be a rebuilding year. The Jackets' fourth straight bowl was a first for the program since 1951-56.

LSU, playing in its first bowl since 1997 under first-year coach Nick Saban, rallied from a 14-3 half-time deficit.

After managing just 117 yards in the first half with starter Josh Booty at quarterback, the Tigers turned to Davey to start the second half.

With Davey completing five passes, the Tigers went 70 yards in nine plays for their first touchdown, a three-yard completion to Tommy Banks.

LSU scored the go-ahead touchdown in the opening minute of the fourth quarter on a brilliant catch by Josh Reed, who jumped high to pull down the ninevard pass.

John Corbello kicked a 49-yard field goal, set up by a Tech fumble at its own 17-yard line before Davey threw with another three-yard touchdown pass to Banks. The scoring play with 3:12 remaining completed a 13-play, 91-yard drive that consumed more than seven minutes.

The Jackets slumped to their lowest-scoring game of the year and were shut out in the second half. They had two turnovers, managed just 100 yards and did not cross midfield in the second half until a drive in the waning minutes reached the LSU four-yard line. But Godsey was knocked out with a knee injury and the drive stalled. The Tech signal caller threw for 2,906 yards and 23 touchdowns during the regular season with only six interceptions but was just 19-of-36 for 177 yards, with two interceptions and two

Tech could have buried LSU in the first half if not for four turnovers and a motion penalty that wiped out a 59-yard touchdown pass from Godsey to Kelly Campbell.

Instead, the Jackets settled for a 14-3 lead. Joe Burns' 32-yard run capped a nine-play, 80-yard drive and put Tech ahead 7-3 with 5:32 in the first quarter. A nine-yard scoring run by Baton Rouge native Jermaine Hatch extended the lead to 14-3 with 8:17 left before halftime. Meanwhile, the Tech defense held the Tigers to seven yards rushing.

2001 SEATTLE BOWL

Georgia Tech 24, Stanford 14

Most Valuable Player George Godsey passed for 266 yards and a touchdown, Kelly Campbell scored twice and the Georgia Tech defense made a key goalline stand as the Yellow Jackets defeated No. 11 Stanford, 24-14, in the inaugural Seattle Bowl.

The Jackets, under interim head coach Mac McWhorter, made their fifth straight bowl appear-

Campbell's second touchdown was a two-vard run on a reverse play with 1:29 left that sealed the victory after the Cardinal had pulled within three points.

Tech dominated the first half to take a 17-3 lead at the intermission, but Stanford (9-3) drew to 17-14 with 11:39 remaining when backup quarterback Chris Lewis threw a four-yard TD pass to Teyo Johnson, then added a two-point pass to Ryan Wells.

The Tech defense set the tone on the game's first drive, stopping Stanford three times at the Tech onevard line.

Tech took over and drove 97 yards, their longest drive of the season that used 16 plays and 6:16 on the clock, capped by Will Glover's five-yard touchdown run. Godsey, who completed 23 of 37 passes, connected on seven of nine passes for 80 yards on the drive.

Stanford used 16 plays and seven minutes to drive from its own 20 to the Tech 18, but again the Rambling Wreck defense held, forcing the Cardinal to settle for Mike Biselli's 35-yard field goal.

Godsey engineered another long drive, this time covering 81 yards on seven plays as he teamed with Campbell for a 34-yard touchdown pass to give Tech a 14-3 lead with 9:33 left in the half.

After forcing a Stanford punt, Tech took over on its own 20 with a new wrinkle, inserting backup quarterback Andy Hall to run a series of option plays. Hall gained 18 yards on three carries, sandwiched around a 54-yard jaunt by Gregory to set up Luke Manget's 20-yard field goal with just two seconds left in the half. That sent Tech to the locker room with a 17-3 advantage.

Tech's defense came up with another goal-line stand in the third quarter forcing the Cardinal to settle for a 26-yard field goal.

Trailing 17-6, Stanford inserted Lewis in place of starting quarterback Randy Fasani, who was 11-for-21 for 115 yards and was sacked three times. Lewis managed to move the Cardinal to the Tech five, setting up Johnson's leaping touchdown catch.

After an exchange of punts, Tech took over on its own 37, clinging to a three-point lead with 6:26 to play. Campbell ran a reverse raced into the end zone untouched for the clinching score.

The first football game at Safeco Field, home of the Seattle Mariners, was played with one end zone in left field and the other near home plate-the infield dirt was part of the field. The teams lined up side by side, sharing a sideline in the outfield.

2002 SILICON VALLEY CLASSIC Fresno State 30, Georgia Tech 21

▶ Dec. 31, 2002 • Spartan Stadium • San Jose, Calif.

Rodney Davis ran for 153 yards and two touchdowns and Fresno State held off Georgia Tech's second-half rally to defeat the Yellow Jackets, 30-21, in the Silicon Valley Classic.

Asen Asparuhov kicked a 33-yard field goal with 3:43 left, and Davis, who carried 37 times, secured the win with a 28-yard touchdown run just over a minute later for the Bulldogs.

The Fresno State defense weathered the strong second-half comeback attempt by Tech freshman backup quarterback Damarius Bilbo.

Bilbo passed for one touchdown and ran for another after replacing A.J. Suggs, but Bilbo also threw four interceptions as the Jackets committed seven Tech trailed, 13-7, at the half, but Bilbo put the Jackets ahead, 14-13, with a one-yard touchdown run midway through the third quarter.

Fresno answered on its next possession with Davis' three-yard touchdown run, which capped a six-play, 80-yard drive.

Tech regained the advantage, 21-20, on Bilbo's 42-yard touchdown pass to Smith with 51 seconds left in the third quarter.

Midway through the fourth quarter, the Bulldogs put together a 12-play, 63-yard drive that not only resulted in Aparuhov's 33-yard field goal and a 23-21 Fresno State lead, but ate up more than seven minutes on the clock.

Tech took over at its own 20 with 3:38 to play, but the possession ended with an incompletion on fourthand-two at the Tech 28. On the next play, Davis sealed the win by going 28 yards for the touchdown and a 30-21 advantage.

The Jackets got the ball two more times, but both possessions ended with interceptions.

The game was a muddy mess from the start. It took only a few plays for Tech's gleaming white uniforms — the Jackets wore their traditional white jerseys with white pants for the first time since 1994 to turn a dull brown.

Suggs hit Kerry Watkins for a 35-yard touchdown pass late in the first half, and with Fresno managing only a pair of field goals, Tech led 7-6 and appeared ready to take the advantage into the intermission. But on second-and-six from the Tech 24-yard line with just 26 seconds left, Suggs' pass down the right sideline was underthrown and intercepted by Dee Meza, who returned its 48 yards for the touchdown and a 13-7 Fresno State lead.

Tech placekicker Luke Manget made three extra points to finish his career with 160 in a row, one shy of the NCAA record for consecutive PAT.

2004 HUMANITARIAN BOWL Georgia Tech 52, Tulsa 10

Jan. 3, 2004 • Bronco Stadium • Boise, Idaho

Most Valuable Player P.J. Daniels rushed for 307 yards and four touchdowns and the Georgia Tech defense recovered six fumbles and allowed just 144 yards as the Yellow Jackets crushed Tulsa, 52-10, in the Humanitarian Bowl in Boise, Idaho.

Daniels, who carried 31 times, established an NCAA record for rushing yards in a bowl game with the second-best game in Tech history. He scored on runs of nine, one, 33 and 38 yards to tie the Tech record for touchdowns.

Daniels was virtually all the offense needed as Tech had just 19 yards passing while playing four quarterbacks but set a school record for points in a bowl game. Tech's 42 second-half points tied the school record for the modern era.

The Jackets collected seven sacks and 14 tackles behind the line of scrimmage as Tulsa netted minus-56 yards rushing, a Tech school record. Tulsa managed 103 of its 144 yards and its only touchdown in the fourth quarter after the Jackets emptied their bench

Tech led just 10-3 at the intermission despite holding the Hurricane to 20 yards of offense (minus-29 yards rushing) in the first half. On Tech's first play of the second half, Daniels raced 61 yards to the Tulsa four and then scored three plays later. The Tech defense then sacked Tulsa quarterback James Kilian and forced him to fumble, recovering at the eight-yard line to set up another score, this one a two-yard plunge by Chris Woods, for a 24-3 lead.

Tech's next drive started at its own 10-yard line, but Daniels ripped off a 34-yard gain to the Tulsa 47, then six plays later, he broke loose for a 33-yard scoring run around the right side. That carry gave the Jackets a 31-3 advantage with 1:12 left in the third quarter.

After the Jackets recovered another Tulsa fumble, Daniels needed just one play to score his fourth touchdown of the day, a 38-yard jaunt for a 38-3 lead with 14:10 to play in the game.

With the scoreboard showing Daniels' total at 292 yards, Tech players implored head coach Chan Gailey to let him go for 300. He didn't have to wait long for his chance as Dawan Landry recovered a fumble at the Tulsa 21.

Daniels carried once for five yards and then left the game after a 10-yard scamper put him over the 300-yard mark. His effort ranks second in Georgia Tech history, trailing only Eddie Lee Ivery's then-NCAA record 356 yards against Air Force in 1978.

Senior Jermaine Hatch added two fourth-quarter touchdowns, both set up by Tulsa fumbles.

Freshman Joe Anoai had two of Tech's six fumble recoveries, and another fumble was caused and recovered by wide receiver Jonathan Smith, who played a few series on defense.

Starting quarterback Reggie Ball sustained a minor injury late in the first half, so senior A.J. Suggs started the second half but threw only two passes. He gave way to senior Brian Camp, and then walk-on Robby Brown finished the contest.

2004 CHAMPS SPORTS BOWL Georgia Tech 51, Syracuse 14

▶ Dec. 21, 2004 • Citrus Bowl • Orlando, Fla.

Quarterback Reggie Ball threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score to lead Georgia Tech to a 51-14 victory over Syracuse in the Champs Sports Bowl.

Ball, the game's Most Valuable Player, finished 12-of-19 for 207 yards and had 38 yards rushing. He got plenty of help as the Jackets piled up a season-high 514 yards of offense, including 286 yards on the ground.

P.J. Daniels ran 17 times for 119 yards and two scores, Calvin Johnson scored touchdowns rushing and receiving, and the defense set the tone by returning an interception for a touchdown on the second play of the game. Tech's defense collected five sacks and held the Orange to just 51 yards rushing and 281 total yards.

Even special teams played a role, blocking a punt in the first quarter that the Jackets converted into a touchdown.

Tech linebacker Chris Reis intercepted Perry Patterson's first pass and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown to give the Jackets the lead just 41 seconds into the game. That marked Tech's quickest score since 1994.

Syracuse looked to even the game when Patterson scored from 21 yards out, but Collin Barber missed the extra point.

Tech then scored touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in a four-minute span to put the game away before halftime.

Ball found Johnson, who made a spectacular diving catch in the end zone for a 10-yard score to make it 14-6.

After getting the ball back, Ball rolled right and found Nate Curry down the sideline for an 80-yard touchdown. Curry finished his final game with a career-best 105 yards receiving on three catches.

Syracuse went three-and-out on the ensuing possession, and Xavier McGuire blocked the punt to give Tech possession at the 14.

Ball completed a third-down pass to the two, and Daniels took it in from there, giving Tech a 28-6 lead with 13:27 left in the second quarter.

Later in the half, Johnson made a spectacular 51yard catch over safety Diamond Ferri. He scored six plays later on an end around from the five, capping a 94-yard drive that ate up almost six minutes.

The Jackets led 35-6 at halftime, and Ball's 11-yard touchdown scamper made it 42-6 with 3:48 to play in third quarter. Tech tallied its final touchdown after Syracuse tailback Damien Rhodes fumbled and Reuben Houston recovered at the Orange 13-yard line. Five plays later, Daniels scored from one yard out, and the Jackets led 49-6 with 40 seconds left in the third quarter.

Tech head coach Chan Gailey emptied his bench in the fourth quarter. Freshman defensive tackle Darryl Richard tallied Tech's final points by sacking quarterback Joe Fields in the end zone for a safety.

2005 EMERALD BOWL Utah 38, Georgia Tech 10

▶ Dec. 29, 2005 • SBC Park • San Francisco, Calif.

Travis LaTendresse caught 16 passes for 214 yards and four touchdowns, Brett Ratliff passed for 381 yards and Utah rolled up 550 total yards in a 38-10 victory over No. 24 Georgia Tech in the Emerald Bowl, played at SBC Park in San Francisco, Calif.

Quinton Ganther ran for 120 yards and added a 41-yard TD run in the fourth quarter for the Utes (7-5). Ratliff went 30-of-41, and LaTendresse caught touchdowns of 14, 23 and 25 yards in the first half as the Utes opened on 20-0 lead. He added a 16yard score in the fourth quarter.

Reggie Ball passed for 258 yards for Georgia Tech. The Yellow Jackets' defense, ranked among the nation's leaders entering the game, allowed season highs for total offense, passing yards and pass completions.

Cornerback Eric Weddle, the Mountain West Conference's top defensive player and the game's defensive MVP, did a bit of everything for the Utes - running the ball, engineering a fake field goal as a holder, even throwing a terrible interception.

The Utah offense was nearly flawless behind backup Ratliff. Brian Hernandez, a junior who began his college career at Georgia Tech in 2002, added eight catches for 75 yards for Utah.

Utah scored on its opening drive, moving 76 yards in six plays, capped by LaTendresse's 14-yard scoring grab. A similar drive later in the quarter ended with his TD catch between Georgia Tech defenders, and the Utes went up 20-0 on LaTendresse's third catch down the middle early in the second guarter.

Ball threw two INTs in the first half - but one play after Shaun Harper's pick, the Utes got greedy with a 20-point lead. Weddle threw a long pass into triple coverage, and Dennis Davis intercepted.

Tech immediately drove for its first touchdown, with Ball hitting tight end George Cooper for a 31yard score. The Jackets got within 20-10 with a 65vard pass to Damarius Bilbo and a field goal shortly before halftime.

The Jackets were still within two touchdowns late in the third quarter after Tech's defense forced a field goal that put Utah ahead 23-10. But the Utes put it out of reach with a 73-yard scoring drive early in the fourth quarter, with LaTendresse catching his fourth TD pass.

2007 GATOR BOWL

West Virginia 38, Georgia Tech 35

▶ Jan. 1, 2007 • Alltel Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

Quarterback Patrick White led 12th-ranked West Virginia back from an 18-point deficit in the second half for a 38-35 victory over No. 25 Georgia Tech in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

White was 9-of-15 for 131 yards and two touchdowns and rushed 22 times for 145 yards, including the go-ahead touchdown on a 15-yard run with five minutes left in the third quarter.

The teams set a Gator Bowl record for scoring.

Georgia Tech tried a 54-yard field goal on fourthand-9 with 5 minutes left that could have tied the score, but Travis Bell's kick fell short. The field goal try came after a Tech first down at the 27-yard line was nullified on a block-in-the-back penalty. The Jackets also had another fourth-quarter scoring opportunity thwarted when quarterback Taylor Bennett was intercepted at the WVU two-yard line.

Tech's Tashard Choice ran 27 times for 169 yards and two touchdowns. Johnson had a career-best in his final game in a Tech uniform with 186 yards receiving and two long touchdowns.

Bennett, who finished 19-of-29 for 326 yards and three touchdowns, was playing in place of Reggie Ball, a four-year starter ruled academically ineligible a week-and-a-half earlier.

But Bennett looked like a veteran running Tech's offense. The Yellow Jackets drove for four first-half touchdowns in six possessions, and the 6-3 sophomore threw for three of them.

After Tech gave up a quick TD on West Virginia's first possession, Bennett got the Jackets going. He found Calvin Johnson wide open on the left sideline for a 31-yard touchdown to tie the score at 7-7.

Another long completion to Calvin Johnson, this one for 35 yards to the three, set up Choice's threeyard touchdown before Bennett hooked up with Calvin Johnson again on a 48-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter. The 6-foot-5 wideout wrestled the ball away from 6-foot Quinton Andrews to put the Jackets up 21-7.

On Georgia Tech's next possession, Bennett hit James Johnson for a 27-yard scoring pass and a 28-7 lead with five minutes left in the half.

Tech opened the second half by recovering an onside kick at its own 46. Choice had a 17-yard run and Johnson jumped between two defenders for a 32yard pass before Choice ran it in from five yards out to put the Jackets up 35-17.

White then caught Georgia Tech off-guard in the third quarter for a 57-yard touchdown pass. Following an apparent offsides by the Yellow Jackets, West Virginia snapped it but the offensive line didn't move. The play wasn't dead, and White found Tito Gonzales for the score.

The Mountaineers scored on their next two possessions. The second came after West Virginia retrieved its own kickoff off Tony Clark's leg. Two plays later White ran in for a 15-vard touchdown that put West Virginia up for good, 38-35.

WVU tailback Steve Slaton, the country's thirdleading rusher, played only the first half because of a badly bruised left thigh.

2007 HUMANITARIAN BOWL

Fresno State 40, Georgia Tech 28

▶ Dec. 31, 2007 • Bronco Stadium • Boise, Idaho

Clifton Smith rushed for 152 yards and two touchdowns. Tom Brandstater threw for a score and ran for another and Fresno State beat Georgia Tech 40-28 in the Humanitarian Bowl.

The Bulldogs finished the season 9-4, winning eight of their final 10 and thinking big about 2008, when a talented team will return with aspirations of following Western Athletic Conference brethren Boise State and Hawaii into a BCS bowl game.

Fresno State scored 27 consecutive points after Tech jumped ahead 7-0, and rolled up 571 yards of total offense, the most allowed by the Yellow Jackets this season. Georgia Tech, which led the country in sacks with 47, never got to Brandstater.

Brandstater was Tech's biggest problem early on, before Smith took over with 135 yards rushing in the second half and both of his TDs. Brandstater even added a 24-yard TD run in the third quarter, behind an escort from tight end Bear Pascoe.

But it was his first half that was most impressive, when Brandstater directed scoring drives of 82, 90 and 91 yards, and the Bulldogs scored 17 points in the second quarter, including 10 in the final two minutes.

Brandstater, who finished 23 of 30 passing, threw a 3-yard TD pass to Drew Lubinsky with 1:54 left in the half.

Georgia Tech drove to the Fresno 47, but on fourth down with 23 seconds left, quarterback Taylor Bennett was sacked. Brandstater then completed three straight passes and Clint Stitser kicked a 39-yard field goal, his second of the half, to give the Bulldogs a 20-7 lead.

Smith then started the second half with a 43-yard TD run to give Fresno State a 27-7 lead.

Using young, skill-position backups trying to make an impression on new head coach Paul Johnson, the Yellow Jackets got within 34-28 early in the fourth quarter. Backup running back Jonathan Dwyer rushed for 62 yards and had touchdown runs of 36 and 2 yards.

Backup quarterback Calvin Booker, in for injured starter Taylor Bennett, threw a towering jump ball that D.J. Donley wrestled from Fresno State defensive backs, pulling the Jackets within six with 13:06 left.

National Championship Recognition

Georgia Tech has won four national championships. Tech's four titles are by virtue of a national wire service (1952 & 1990) or by consensus of polls available at the time (1917 & 1928).

Tech's undefeated 1951 squad did not win a wire service title (Tennessee won the AP and UPI crowns), but the Jackets, along with Illinois, earned national championship recognition by the Boand System. William Boand of Tucson, Ariz., developed a mathematical formula that was published in newspapers from 1930-60.

Tech's 1951 and 1956 teams also earned national championship recognition by the Berryman system, a mathematical formula developed by Clyde Berryman of Washington, D.C. in 1990. Berryman named predated national champions from 1940-89.
